HOLD ON TO YOUR FAITH!

And he said to them,
“The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.

Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Luke 10:2

And another angel came out of the temple,
calling with a loud
voice to him who sat on the cloud, “Put in your sickle, and reap, for the hour to reap has come,
for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe.

In the Fall, Let's Stand For Truth

“And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth in him” (Daniel 2:21-23).

Have you noticed how the leaves are changing to brilliant colors of fall: oranges, browns, reds, and golds? It seems that everywhere I go I am reminded of how painstakingly God must have touched on every leaf in the Garden of Eden. There were not any shortcuts taken in his plan. His Word caused universes to come into existence. It was a paradise, but then—we all know the story of how disobedience brought sin into the world. I wonder if the seasons have always been as they are now? Were leaves dying and sailing to the ground before sin came in to change everything?

If I had my thoughts on this, I would probably think that nothing died, including the plants. Even if that were true, fall is still my favorite time of the year. Like no other season, fall gives a continuous flurry of beauty found in the foliage around us. It reminds me that God is still in control, and even though we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God, he still desires to bless us and to keep us for eternity. In the Fall, we can take the time to enjoy God's masterpiece, because it is his delight to make us happy.

The leaves will blow away eventually, and the ground will be left cold and dead; however, even the dead leaves produce brilliant colors. Fall colors remind us to enjoy the small things and to pace ourselves in our walk with God. I saw this on a print: “Heal the Past; Live for Today; Dream the Future.”

We need to work toward healing our past of the deep secret hurts. Let us not close out others who want to be friends. Live for today. You cannot take back yesterday's mistakes, or anticipate tomorrow's demands. Finally, when you do dream the Future, let the Lord direct your steps to help your dreams happen. It takes prayer to make that happen.

“Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of the house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord. The Lord shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel” (Psalm 128).

Korner

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones” (Proverbs 17:22).

If a parsley farmer is sued, can they garnish his wages?

Would a fly without wings be called a walk?

Can you be a closet claustrophobic?

If the funeral procession is at night, do you drive with your lights off?

If a stealth bomber crashes in a forest, will it make a sound?

When it rains, why don't sheep shrink?

If cops arrest a mime, do they tell him he has the right to remain silent?

Why is the word abbreviation so long?

If a book about failures doesn't sell, is it a success?

Do cemetery workers prefer the graveyard shift?

What do you do when you discover an endangered animal that eats only endangered plants?

When companies ship styrofoam, what do they pack it in?

If it's tourist season, why can't we shoot them?

Why do they sterilize the needles for lethal injections?

Why is there an expiration date on sour cream?

Why isn't there mouse-flavored cat food?

Why do they report power outages on TV?

Until next time, Willie

Just a Few Thoughts to Ponder...

“Whose Report will you Believe?

We shall believe the report of the Lord! His report says that we are healed, His report says that people are being filled with the baptism of the Holy Ghost!

His report says that I am free from the bondage of sin, and His report says victory belongs to The Pentecostals who will have faith to believe that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him.

“The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it” (Psalm 68:11).

“Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him Flee before him. As the smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
