‘Twas The Night Before Jesus Came

‘Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house not a creature was praying, not one in the house.
Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care
in hopes that Jesus would not come there.
The children were dressing to crawl into bed.
Not once ever kneeling or bowing a head.
And mom in her rocker with the babe on her lap
was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.
When out of the east there arose such a clatter,
I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash
tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!
When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But angels proclaiming that Jesus was here!
With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray
I knew in a moment this must be THE DAY!
The light of his face made me cover my head.
It was Jesus returning just like he said.
And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth,
I cried when I saw him in spite of myself.
In the Book of Life, which he held in his hand,
was written the name of every saved man.
He spoke not a word as He searched for my name;
When He said, "It's not here," my head hung in shame.
The people whose names had been written with love
He gathered to take to His Father above.
With those who were ready He arose without a sound.
While the rest were left standing around.
I fell to my knees, but it was too late;
I had waited too long and thus sealed my fate.
I stood and cried as they rose out of sight;
Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.
In the words of this poem the meaning is clear:
The coming of Jesus is drawing near.
There's only one life, and when comes the last call we'll find that the Bible was true after all!

“Therefore I say unto you,
What things soever ye desire,
when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them” (Mark 11:24).

KRISPY KREME

What does Krispy Kreme and Sunday School have in common? Donuts! Brother Mike and Sister Cindy Laurin's Primary class celebrated the Recipes for Success quarter with a trip to Krispy Kreme to enjoy some delicious donuts. This quarter they learned about the Plan of Salvation, Miracles, Praising God in Prison, Paul being shipwrecked and snakebitten, but safe! Eutychus, falling out of the window, dying and being raised back to life and Heaven, and Our Promised Home. The boys were great in learning their memory verses and earning cookie stickers each time they said them. They were rewarded by getting to take a trip to Krispy Kreme to enjoy some delicious donuts. Sunday school is a great place to be every Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. What a great way to celebrate.

We LOVE DONUTS!

See you next time, Willie
