“Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity” (1 Timothy 4:12).

I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago. I will consider all your works and meditate on all your mighty deeds.”

Your ways, God, are holy. What god is as great as our God? You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the peoples. (Psalm 77:11-14 NIV)

He Shall Direct Thy Paths

5 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

9 Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase:

10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding” (Proverbs 3:5-13).

We have no other options but to trust God if we want to succeed in this life. Trust may be a tall order for us when the world continually batters us and whittles away our confidence, rejection by rejection. It’s easy to trust God when the blessings are an abundant flood; it’s not so easy when your world seems to crumble beneath your feet and you struggle to stand. We make our commitments and say our prayers and praise a God who is faithful. He spoke the world into existence, and we were planned long before we were conceived in our mother’s womb.

It is his good pleasure to bless us, but is he pleased with us? Is our worship genuine or do we sometimes go through the motions with a distant heart that aches for something that we don’t understand?

As a Christian, I should be setting an example for others. When I walk into a room people should know that there is something unique in me. This perception isn’t a result of the clothes I wear or the way that I walk. It is something deeper than that. It is commitment and a peace that passes all understanding. It is knowing that I know that Jesus Christ is the same today, yesterday, and forever and that he changes not. This world may be unsure but we can have confidence in a Saviour who understands what we have need of, and when we don’t understand, he provides the Holy Ghost to pray for us in a heavenly language that is unselfish. I used to pray for things: now, I have learned to pray for God’s will. Help me, Lord, to trust in you, honor you and serve you even when I don’t understand. Peace be still.—gm

Valentines' Day Banquet

The Valentine's Banquet will be coming up before you know it, February 14th, in fact, on a Friday night in the Family Life Center. There have been some really famous people that have provided entertainment through the years, and it gets better every year. Rumor has it that Pentecostals Got Talent will be here. Mark the date down for a great time of food, fun, and fellowship. You will need to purchase a ticket to attend. Hold on to the ticket, because there will be some great door prizes!

The tickets are 35.00 per couple; 20.00 for a single. A whole lot is happening at the Pentecostals of Greenville! I like it!

Until next time, Willie

Stand

If I a tiny wind-tossed seed, never left the safe strong reed
Could I, stand alone?
It was in the plan for
my chaff to be blown:

When I'm discouraged, and my hope
begins to wane,
and all the world's mocking becomes
too much to bear;
When I doubt God's promises are really
true for me,
and my shield of faith becomes weak.
When the day to day routine, robs me of my joy:
I'll lift my hands to the Lord, and Stand.
I will stand still and know that he is my God.
His grace is sufficient and his promises
are true
And if I don't faint, I'll see his glory, soon. -gm
