

Onward

I will follow where he leads me, through the valleys and the hills I will trust Him for there's no other who can all my needs fulfill

In sickness and in health he's my strength and my song,
In life's battles, He's my shield;
In my weakness, He is strong.

Oh, when all the world's against me, my ideas and my plans
I know that he'll lead me through it, and Teach me how to stand.
