Keep on Trusting-You Will Overcome

It is difficult to express what my heart contains on this Sunday morning. I know that God is faithful and that he cares about us. Yet, once again, his love is confirmed in my life. To God be the Glory for the great things he has done. He is truly the healer of all of our diseases, and there is nothing impossible or too difficult for God to handle. Didn't he cause the stars, suspended between heaven and the earth, to shine? My God shall supply all of our needs according to his riches in glory. He is a great God, and he gives great promises if we can only trust him to work them out for our good.

“And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment” (Mark 12:30).

“Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path” (Psalm 119:105).

You can spend hours, days, even years begging to get chosen to go into the battle, but if you never take the time to prepare as we are directed in Ephesians—“Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on your breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:” (Ephesians 6:13-17)—you will never reach your destination.

It's not about waiting to get called to work for the Lord, it is about taking steps to move closer in the direction of your goals. Never quit; keep working. The work that you do now, may seem so insignificant; but it may well be an integral part of God's grand design for your life! When we stop believing and grow weary in the fight, he picks up our shield and our sword, and he fights our battle for us. We can depend on him to stand in the gap; but, isn't it time that we learned how to stand on his Word and stand in the gap for others?

How can they know, if we aren't willing to go and do the work that he has called us to do? The answer is something to pray about. Praise him in the sanctuary!

“I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord.”

Scriptures to ponder:

For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? Luke 9:25 (Revised Standard Version). James, a servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greeting.

Count it all joy, my brethren, when you meet various trials, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives to all men generously and without reproaching, and it will be given to him.

But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind.

For that person must not suppose that a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways, will receive anything from the Lord. Let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, and the rich in his humiliation, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away. For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass: its flower fails, and its beauty perishes. So will the rich man fade away in the midst of his pursuits. James 1:1-15 Until next time, Willie
