“Ye are the light of the world, a city set on a hill cannot be hid. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glory your Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 5:14, 16).

We would like to extend a warm welcome to all of our guests. Thank you for taking the time to be with us on this very special day. As we celebrate Father's Day, let's celebrate Jesus. Let's invite the Lord's presence into this sanctuary today. He reigns forever!

Men of God: You Make a Difference

Today is Fathers' Day. As I was preparing this week's Latter Reign, my mind was heavy in thought about my own father and the influence that he had in my life. I know that he may have been difficult sometimes, but in spite of his addictions, he was my Daddy, and I loved him. It is too late really to make excuses for his behaviors that caused the family so much grief, but now that both parents are gone, I try to focus on the gentle ways that he had and his sensitivity to anyone who was in need. The positives outweigh the negatives in my life.

Dad would take in strangers who didn't have a place to sleep; he would share his last dollar when he saw that somebody needed it more than he did; I've saw him cry when he was vulnerable and felt that he was lost. My dad was strong in his beliefs; he wasn't perfect; sometimes I was afraid of him; but, he was my dad.

How could you honor a man like that, you might wonder?

I knew the struggles that he faced; how he had lost the only family that he knew; he cared about people in his own way and he loved my mom to distraction.

They were childhood sweethearts and spent their entire lives together. (Oh, to give just one last kiss on the cheek to the man that was always there for his family.) As we give honor to the men in our lives, those who have sons and daughters, and those who are role models for other children, let's remember to pray for their health, strength to move forward in Jesus' Name, and wisdom to make the decisions that are needed to preserve their families. You can spend a whole lifetime focusing on what the man in your life failed to do; but it is wise to take the time to encourage the man that does his best to give you a life worth living. Happy Father's Day, men of God. Praise Him! -gm “Well, what are you going to be, my boy,

When you have reached manhood's years;
A doctor, a lawyer, or actor great,
Moving throngs to laughter and tears?”
But he shook his head, as he gave reply,
In a serious way he had,
“I don't think I'd care to be any of them;
I want to be like my dad!”
He wants to be like his dad! You men,
Do you ever think, as you pause,
That the boy who watches your every move
Is building a set of laws?
He's molding a life that's modeled by yours,
And whether it's good or bad,
Depends on the kind of example you set
For the boy who'd be like his dad.
Would you have him go wherever you go?
Have him do just the things you do?
And see everything that your eyes behold,
And woo all the gods you woo?
When you see the worship that shines
In the eyes of your lovable little lad,
Could you rest content if he gets his wish,
And grows to be like his dad?

Congratulations to Grads of all ages..

Rebekah Laurin; Melanie Tyson; Ashley Garris

Brianna Mcrae; Cayla Morris; Armoni Reid; are some of the graduates for the class of 2014.

These young people are amazing. Thank you for staying focused to finish. So many these days don't complete high school, but you didn't give up and for that we commend you. If you are a graduate and your name is not listed, we appreciate you as well. It takes courage to grow forward in high school, and you did it. :-)
