When the Waters are Troubled; Step in by Faith.

What does it take to make it in a world so wrapped up in itself? The headlines fill our minds with fear. We forget to trust in the gentle voice we hear inside that speaks to us saying encouraging things like—all is well; hold on; you're gonna make it; trust in me; lean not to your own understanding; I am that I am; all things work together for the good if we love God—and I wonder, this week, have I made myself available to obey God's will for my life?

Am I flexible when his will changes? His will is not set in concrete, am I? Have I hindered his vision for me? Without change in our lives nothing can get better. If we are rigid in our attitudes or our ideas and not flexible, we will eventually die. Very little life can survive if the water is not moving. It is the moving of the water that generates power and results.

We say, Lord send a revival and let it start with me, then we sit down on God and wait for a special invitation, service, or move of God, before we can get motivated to act. Teach me, Lord, to be a worshipper not a whisperer. Help me to trouble the waters enough to bring life to my soul. Lord, help me to be unsatisfied with a mediocre, half-hearted, approach to God. Help me to reverence your sanctuary as you commanded in Leviticus 19:30. Make me truly hungry for revival. Teach me to pray and invite revival in our midst.

Stop my own unbelief from hindering what you desire to do through me. It's very easy to move with the water, to move along without a vision, but it takes discipline to change direction against the current of the world. Help me to know you, Lord, and to hear your voice as you lead me into all truth. Remind me of your faithfulness. Help me choose to go against the current of the world. Teach me to trust you implicitly even when I don't understand where you are leading me to or why.

"And the Lord said unto me, write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry: (Habakkuk 2:2-3).

REVIVAL IS HERE IN GREENVILLE. BE A PART OF IT. —gm

“Therefore I say unto you,
What things soever ye desire,
when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them” (Mark 11:24).

11 Excuses to Give Up Sports:

The reason why I'm giving up sports: football in the fall, baseball in the summer, basketball in the winter. I've had it all.

I quit attending sports once and for all, and here are my 11 excuses:

1. Every time I went, they asked for money.
2. The people I sat next to didn't seem friendly.
3. The seats were too hard and not comfortable at all.
4. I went to many games but the coach never came to call on me.
5. The game went into overtime and I was late getting home.
6. The band played numbers I'd never heard before and it wasn't my style of music.
7. It seems the games are always scheduled when I want to do other things.
8. I suspect that I was sitting next to some hypocrites. They came to see their friends and they talked during the whole game.
9. I was taken to too many games by my parents when I was growing up.
10. I hate to wait in the traffic jam in the parking lot after the game.
