“Search me, O God,
and know my heart:
Try me and know
my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way
everlasting”
(Psalm 139:23-24)

“For thou hast possessed
my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
marvelous are thy works;
and that my soul knoweth
right well”
(Psalm 139:13-14).

Whatsoever You Shall Ask in His Name

“Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth, I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain that whatsoever ye shall ask of the father in my name he may give it you.”

(John 15:14-16)

Here I am, Lord, walking out deeper for thee.

As far as my eyes can see, there's nothing but the sea.

I'm walking alone and stepping on stones that soon will disappear.

“Where are you, God?” I asked, while I desperately search for the pier.

Then, in desperation, I cried out, “Oh Lord, how could you leave me to face this all alone?” The Lord answered with a gentle voice, “You're not alone.

I am with you always, look to me. Daughter, did you see the sea, while you walked out deeper still?”

“Yes, Lord. I saw a deep and troubled sea.

I'm afraid to keep going. “Daughter, it is my will, for while you are walking deeper still, I'm holding you up lest the sea would overtake you. Let me open your eyes, to see the things you can't see. He opened my eyes, and I saw that he was carrying me. Have faith in God.

What is a friend? A friend is someone who is always available if you need help. They are never too busy to see you, and when you are at your lowest point, they know the best things to say to encourage you to keep moving forward. A friend will allow you to exist and find peace. When I'm with a friend, I don't feel pressured to fill in the gaps of silence with talk. If I talk, it's okay, but if I don't, that's okay too. It is such a blessing to have someone to care about you.

When I was introduced to my greatest friend my life was complete. We are complete in him, Jesus Christ. It is good to know that I've been redeemed. I can sit with my friend and I don't have to talk, he knows my very thoughts and the intents of my heart. We walk together through all of the day, and when I have the pressures of daily life, I can turn to my friend and he will be right with me. He takes the time to spend with me, and he'll do the same for you. He is never slack concerning his promises; he is never too busy; he never gets depressed; he never loses his compassion for our needs. He sticketh closer than a brother, and when I go to sleep at night, he doesn't leave me alone.

I know that I can depend on God to do his perfect will in my life, even when I have questions. Let God lead you into all truth. Trust him, and let the glory of the Lord fill this place.—gm

Psalm 103: 1-8:

Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things;
so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all the oppressed. He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
