Great is the Mystery.

“And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory” (1 Timothy 3:16). It was God’s plan and nothing could stop it from coming to pass because it was his will. Satan thought that he’d won the victory after Jesus was crucified, but Satan had been stripped of his power long before that day. There’s power in the Name of Jesus Christ!

I am thankful that we can look at the scriptures and be assured that Jesus Christ is faithful to us and that no matter what we are enduring, it is still part of God’s plan because he is in control of our lives. It’s time to trust in the Lord and lean not to our own understanding. We spend a great deal of time trying to figure out the plan, when we should spend our time just doing the will of God, step by step. (I must keep reminding myself.)

This Easter Sunday morning, I keep going back to the scriptures that deal with baptism; “John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire.” (Luke 3:16). We have been given a valuable gift in the Holy Ghost, and with this gift we shall be free to worship in spirit and in truth. Even when the world tries to squelch our praise we still can lift up our hands to live victoriously through his divine will. God is sovereign and he knows all situations.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). He gave his only begotten Son. No one dragged his Son away. Jesus went willingly with his accusers. Everyone else fled. He stood alone and yet he didn’t turn away from his friends! He still went to Calvary. Jesus knew that death awaited him, and yet he sacrificed his last precious hours of life so that we could have eternal life. “What greater love hath no man but that he’d lay down his life for his friends.” Jesus was that kind of friend to us.

If you are visiting us today, we want to take the time to thank you for celebrating the resurrecting power of Jesus Christ with us. May the Lord richly bless you as we lift up his name in thanksgiving. gm

This week's ministry spotlight is about being prepared for whatever the Lord has for us to do. If we're instant in season and out of season we'll be of value to the kingdom of God. We are through winter and spring is here. Let's take the time to prepare our gardens so that they'll be filled with rich soil and fruit that will remain. Sowers are always ready to do the work, and they are always the ones who reap the harvest. If you know of any one you'd like to shine the ministry spotlight on, let me know. I welcome your ideas.

SOC- Save our Children! Today is the day, Easter Sunday! Who will be eligible for a prize? We'll find out, today. Thanks to everyone who participated, by filling SOCKS with money. Turn in your socks to Sis.
Cindy Laurin, and the first three people who turn in the most money will receive a gift card. Today is the last day to turn in your socks for a prize.

Until next time, Willie
