Built on The Rock! God Bless America!

My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Therefore,
I take pleasure
in the infirmities,
in reproaches,
in necessities,
in persecutions,
in distresses
for Christ's sake:
for when I am weak,
then am I strong.”

(2 Corinthians 12: 9-12) .

I Will Lift up Mine Eyes Unto the Hills

“I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore” (Psalm 121:1-8).

Although we are living in troubled times we have a steadfast Savior: Jesus Christ. There is no situation that he can't handle and we can depend on him to shield us from harm. The Lord promises to never leave us nor forsake us and I continue to hold him to that promise as each and every day becomes a greater challenge.

I can rest assured that the Lord will keep me because he knew everything about me before I was formed in my mother's womb. I am blessed. I am blessed. I am blessed. There is nothing that I need that the Lord can't supply. He is my provider and my high priest. He is the next breath that I take, the joy in my soul, my light, and my song of praise. If there is any peace in my soul, it's there to testify of Jesus Christ.

Before I found the Lord, it seemed that every time I climbed out of the pit, that circumstances pushed me back down into the pit. I couldn't breathe; I always cried out to God. It didn't seem like He heard my cry, but I reasoned why should He listen to a child who walked away from serving him? The truth was that the Lord did hear my cry, and when I became sincere about finding him, I got honest with God and realized that I needed the Lord in my life desperately, so I prayed that he would restore to me the joy of my salvation and he did.

If we'll allow God to work in our lives, we can have the life that we've always wanted but never quite reached. It's a life without fear. It's a life based on trust and commitment. If you're tired of wandering through life aimlessly, unsure of what direction to take; try Jesus. He is no respecter of persons. He came to seek and to save those who are lost. It doesn't matter if they are rich or poor, the Lord promises that if we will lift him up that he would draw ALL men unto himself. The Lord wants us to prosper, to be in good health, and he has plans for each of us.

We have a great task ahead of us. There are so many people that may never be reached in Greenville if we don't go to them. People are hungry for the gospel, but if we never reach out beyond the church doors to share it with them, or teach Bible studies, they'll never know how to find the answers that they seek in Jesus. gm

"I love them that love me and those that seek me early will find me" (Proverbs 8:17).

The Time is Now for Revival

It is time for Christians to have everyday goodness; to live right, to wake up to the possibilities around us and to have a true revival: the kind that causes people to love on another. Someone once wrote that it all depends on a two-letter word called IF. It goes like this:

*If all the sleeping folk—will wake up;
If all the lukewarm folk—will fire up;
And all the dishonest folk—will confess up;
And all the disgruntled folk—will sweeten up;
And all the discouraged folk—will cheer up;
And all the depressed folk—will look up;
And all the estranged folk—will make up;
And all the gossipers will hush up—;
And all the members will pray up—*

We will have a revival and it will continue in our church and community. – Author Unknown (qtd in Haney 141).

Until next time, Willie
