“Lean not Unto Thine Own Understanding”

- ⁵ Trust in the Lord with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own understanding.
- ⁶ In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
- ⁷ Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil.
- ⁸ It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.
- ⁹ Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase:
- ¹⁰ So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
- ¹¹ My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction:
- ¹² For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.
- ¹³ Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding” (Proverbs 3:5-13).

We have no other options but to trust God if we want to succeed in this life. Trust may be a tall order for us when the world continually batters us and whittles away our confidence, rejection by rejection. It's easy to trust God when the blessings are an abundant flood; it's not so easy when your world seems to crumble beneath your feet and you struggle to stand. We make our commitments and say our prayers and praise a God who is faithful. He spoke the world into existence and we were planned long before we were conceived in our mother's womb.

It is his good pleasure to bless us, but is he pleased with us? Is our worship genuine or do we sometimes go through the motions with a distant heart that aches for something that we don't understand?

As a Christian, I should be setting an example for others. When I walk into a room people should know that there is something unique in me. This perception isn't a result of the clothes I wear or the way that I walk. It is something deeper than that. It is commitment and a peace that passes all understanding. It is knowing that I know that Jesus Christ is the same today, yesterday, and forever and that he changes not.

This world may be unsure but we can have confidence in a Savior who understands what we have need of, and when we don't understand, he provides the Holy Ghost to pray for us in a heavenly language that is unselfish. I used to pray for things: now, I have learned to pray for God's will. Help me, Lord, to trust in you, honor you and serve you even when I don't understand. Peace be still.—gm

A little girl had just finished her first week of school. I'm just wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write and they won't let me talk!"

BIBLE

A little boy opened the big family bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages.
Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible. He picked up the object and looked at it. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed in between the pages.
"Mama, look what I found," the boy called out.
"What have you got there, dear?" With astonishment in the young boy's voice, he answered, "I think it's Adam's underwear!"

POLICE

It was the end of the day when I parked my police van in front of the station. As I gathered my equipment, my K-9 partner, Jake, was barking, and I saw a little boy staring in at me "Is that a dog you got back there?" he asked. "It sure is," I replied.
Puzzled, the boy looked at me and then towards the back of the van. Finally he said, "What'd he do?"
