"And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after; and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Luke 12:29-31).

Committed to Believe that God IS

"Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Luke 12:32-34).

While much of the world lives in constant fear of calamity, we know that God gives us peace in the midst of the storm. The most important thing I can do to ensure my future, is to stay in the middle of God's will for my life. If I hold fast to the vision of what God desires for my life, I can face adversity with my head held high, at peace, because God is in control of my circumstance, and he has already overcome the world.

I'm glad that I have a God who'll not fail. He knows everything about me, even my thoughts before I think them. He's always been faithful to me, even when I turned away in shame because I failed to live up to my commitments. I took my eyes away from the prize, and in a moment's time, I was deeply lost. I wandered through a maze of darkness; I searched for peace that hid in Jesus. When I found Jesus, I realized that he's all that I needed to survive.

At Calvary, Jesus purchased my salvation; and then, in hell, he took back the keys of death, hell, and the grave, so I could live free from the chains of sin. On the third day, He arose from the grave. He went to the disciples to establish a new covenant to fulfill the law of Moses.

"Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:45-49).

The Lord hasn't changed his word, just because we live in a modern age. It is forever settled in heaven. It's time that we realize how powerful a weapon we have in prayer to move forward in Jesus Name'. We have waited for the promise, and we have been endued with power from on high. So, what is left to do? How about we obey God, and go. We must take back our city. -gm

Two Little Boys

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved.

The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behavior. The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said, 'We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!' The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first. The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, 'Where is God?'

The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, 'Where is God?' Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, 'WHERE IS GOD?'

At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and asked what had happened. The younger brother replied, 'We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.'

Six-year-old Angie and her four-year-old brother Joel were sitting together during church services. Joel giggled, sang, and talked out loud. Finally, his big sister had enough.

You're not supposed to talk out loud in church.'

'Why? Who's going to stop me?' Joel asked.

Angie pointed to the back of the church and said, 'See those two men standing by the door? They're hushers.'

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor" thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?"

Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."
