"Put off thy Shoes From thy Feet"

"Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground" (Acts 7:33).

If you ever doubted God's promises, you can be assured today that he is forever faithful to his word. There is no situation too difficult for God, and we must learn to trust him even when it seems that he isn't listening to our prayers. His ways are higher than our ways, his mercy endures forever, his sacrifice is greater than any sacrifice man deserves to make; his love casts out fear, and thankfully, he desires to lead us into all truth.

What better reason to praise the Lord with my whole heart! Jesus is more than enough to meet our every need. His grace is sufficient; He is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. If I'll trust him, I can't go wrong. Then, why is it so hard when you're in the midst of the trial? I can't explain why, but I know that when I'm faced with the overwhelming times in my life, I can still have joy in my soul.

When I face difficulties, God is right there with me holding to my hand, leading me through all of the pain and suffering. He sends his angels to encourage me to keep moving forward in faith. When I want to quit or give up, he sends someone to share a kind word, or even just a smile. It is with their assurance that I can continue to trust God and walk.

If you really start to get discouraged, it helps to have events like the outreach yesterday for the NC Crusades. We had an awesome turnout, so it made our efforts more effective, overall. Sometimes we wonder if we are really making a difference in our communities, on our jobs, or at schools across eastern North Carolina, but then I read from the Bible and it says:

⁴Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world (1 John 4-4).

¹⁹So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him" (Isaiah 59:19).

The Lord is preparing us for an awesome outpouring of his spirit. Are we ready to receive it, again? It is my prayer that the Lord will honor our efforts of evangelism and outreach in the Snow Hill area, and I believe that God will do "exceeding abundantly more than we could ask or think" if we will dare to trust him and believe. —gm

God is Like a TV Commercial

Then there's the Sunday School teacher who had her 5th grade class watch commercials to see if they could use them to come up with ways to communicate truths about God. Here's what they said:

God is like..

Allstate: You're in good hands.

Alka-Seltzer: Try him, you'll like Him

Tide: He gets the stains out that others leave behind.

Sears: He has everything.

A Ford: He's got a better idea.

Hallmark Cards: He cared enough to send the very best.

Bayer Aspirin: He works miracles.

Delta: He's ready when you are.

Alberto Vo-5: He holds through all kinds of weather.

Coke: He's the real thing.

The US Post Office: Neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor hail will keep Him from His appointed rounds.

Scotch Tape: You can't see Him, but you know He's there.

Dial Soap: Aren't you glad you've got Him?
Don't you wish everybody did?

General Electric: He brings good things to life.

Until Next Time, Willie

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

(Matthew 9:38)
