Built on The Rock! God Bless America!

"Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in his time: (Isaiah 60:21-22).

Keep the Dream, Alive. Greater Things are Yet to Come.

"And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred" (Mark 4:20).

It seems like yesterday that I was filled with the Holy Ghost and baptized in Jesus' Name. In reality, I have been in Pentecost for twenty-five years, now. I have watched the children grow up and get married! There have been births and deaths; weddings, anniversaries, celebrations, trials, divorces; miracles of healing, miracles of finances; miracles of land; and miracles of churches and sanctuaries. Deeper works of the Holy Ghost have changed us for a lifetime.

Evangelists have revived us, ripped us apart spiritually, and then repaired us with the balm of Gilead. Ministries have been created and absolved, and lives have been renewed and reborn by the power of God. I have seen souls saved, baptized in Jesus' Name and filled with the Holy Ghost. I have witnessed the power of the death angel as it swept into a service when we interceded for a soul who lost out with God. I have been a part of a mighty sweeping revival when we were thrown to the floor face first in the spirit, falling like dominos throughout the sanctuary; I have heard the rustling of angel's wings as our worship saturated the place.

In the best of times, we have experienced victory marches, and in the midnight hour, we have groaned in the spirit for the lost. We have had angels encamped about us; we have been commissioned to go, to give, and to heed the Spirit. We have been captivated when our pastor preached, Jonathan Edwards' message—"Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God"—and we have been humbled by the power of a loving God full of mercy and grace.

In the sanctuary, we have been allowed to take a spotlight to our own souls, and the Lord has afforded us many once in a lifetime opportunities—messages from God delivered by many messengers of God—ministers who have stood behind the pulpit prepared to preach from notes, only to be stopped in their tracks by the Holy Ghost, because the Lord had a different message to deliver to the church in Greenville, a message of love and hope.

Today is the day of salvation. I am blessed to be here, in this place. Twenty-five years. Has it really been that long? Not compared to eternity. Thank you for welcoming me into the church family. My life has been changed for eternity. I am truly blessed.

This is just the beginning of what the Lord desires to do in Greenville. Let's Keep the Dream Alive! gm

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

Satan's Beatitudes

If the devil were to write his Beatitudes, they would possibly go something like this:

"Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour once a week with their fellow Christians in Church—they are my best workers.

Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked—I can use them.

Blessed are the touchy, with a bit of luck they may stop going to church—they are my missionaries.

Blessed are those who are very religious but get on everyone's nerves—they are mine forever.

Blessed are the troublemakers—they shall be called my children.

Blessed are those who have no time to pray—they are easy prey for me.

Blessed are the complainers—I'm all ears for them.

Blessed are you when you read this and think it is about other people and not yourself—I've got you." -Author unknown

The purpose of life is a life of purpose. Robert Byrne

Life is a series of collisions with the future. Jose Ortega y Gasset

A life without cause is a life without effect.

The tragedy of life is not that man loses, but that he almost wins. Heywood Broun

Life is a cement trampoline. Howard Nordberg

Leadership is action, not position. Donald H. McGannon

You do not lead by hitting people over the head. That's assault, not leadership. Dwight D. Eisenhower

A good leader is a person who takes a little more than his share of the blame and a little less than his share of the credit. John C. Maxwell
