Built on The Rock! God Bless America!

“Make a joyful noise
unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence
with singing.

Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise: be thankful
unto him, and bless his name For the Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting and his truth endureth to all generations”
(Psalm 100).

It's a Time to be Thankful

When was the last time that you told someone thanks for something that they did for you? Every day we come to God with our petitions. When we come into his presence, oftentimes with a heavy and burdened heart, we have a tendency to unload our trouble on him. In this week before Thanksgiving it is time for us to learn to take time to be thankful. I am blessed. I don't deserve it. I never expected it; but, all the same, through God's mercy, I am blessed. I am thankful that the Lord brought me here, today, so that I can worship God freely.

Lord, thank you for taking the time to save my soul from sin. Thank you for filling me with the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and for giving me the opportunity to be baptized in your precious name, Jesus. You have made a difference in my life. In my walk with you, there are times that I don't know where to turn, or what direction is best for me, but thank you for taking my hand and leading me through those difficult times of indecision. While I walk, I can see the storms on every side, and although I don't see ahead, I can look up and know that you are providing a shield to protect me. You promised that you would never leave me nor forsake me, but it is my choice to make: I could redirect my attention to the left side or to the right side and see the turmoil all around me; I could turn away and look back to my past where you brought me out of the danger and heartache. I could look down in shame and hand over my victory and joy to the devil: a victory that has already been won at Calvary, but I have chosen to keep looking forward. “I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God, in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:14).

When I call on your name, you reach for me and make the way clear. All that I am able to see is you, and that is all that I need to see. Every decision, every hurt, every tear, every prayer, every aspect of my being: Lord, Jesus, let it be filtered through your blood, and your Word.

I can't see the struggles ahead; sometimes that makes me anxious. It is those times that I remember the scripture: “Be careful for nothing, but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things” (Philippians 4:6-8). I'm not perfect, Lord, but you still love me, and for that, I am thankful.

Help us to remember that your love reaches through time to keep us; you know the plans that you have for us: to prosper us as our souls prosper and to keep us in good health. Yes, there is so much to be thankful for: if your health has failed, and every thing seems lost, today; you can still feel the peace of God that passeth all understanding. Whatever your circumstances, Jesus Christ is the answer. We invite you into his presence. May the Lord richly bless you and your family. gm

and those that seek me
early will find me"

Let's Talk Even More Turkey!

What did the mama turkey say to her naughty son? If your papa could see you now, he'd turn over in his gravy!

Why did the turkey cross the road? It was the chicken's day off.

If the Pilgrims were alive today, what would they be most famous for?
Their AGE

Why can't you take a turkey to church? Because they use such FOWL language.

What are the feathers on a turkey's wings called? Turkey feathers

Can a turkey jump higher than the Empire State Building? Yes-a building can't jump at all

What do you get when you cross a turkey with an octopus? Enough drumsticks for Thanksgiving

Which side of the turkey has the most feathers? The outside

Why did they let the turkey join the band? Because he had the drumsticks

Why did the police arrest the turkey? They suspected it of fowl play Happy Thanksgiving! Gobble, Gobble, :-)

Until Next Time, Willie
