How May I Help You?

There will be times in our walk with God when we feel that we'll never catch up with all of the responsibilities and chaos that comes with being involved in a ministry. I had a eye-opening experience, recently, that assures me that the Lord doesn't expect us to do it all!

Hey, as a matter of fact, he reminded me that he was “able to do exceeding abundantly above all that I could ask or think.” He showed me that I needed him more than he needed me to be busy with the cares of this world. When I reached the end of my capability, God spoke to me gently and asked, “When are you going to allow me to step into your life?”

It's a known fact that I'm not a multi-tasked person. After hearing requests, I promptly forget to do them if I don't write them down on my calendar.

Although I eventually complete the lost requests, they will continually bounce back and forth in my mind until I have the opportunity to attend to them in the order in which they were received.

I felt that I had reached the outer limits of my effectiveness, so I was more than ready to get alone with God and listen to what He had to say about my dilemma. My spirit quickened and he told me, “Let go of the control. It's not YOUR ministry: it's MY ministry. I will lead you in my will. You will never reach a place in your ministry beyond what you can handle in prayer. So, if you don't have time to support your ministry in prayer, then your ministry will be weak from lack of spiritual food.”

Have I failed to feed my ministry with the nourishment of God's word and communion through prayer? The Lord has brought us here today to worship him in spirit and in truth. Are we willing to let go of our long held traditions so that we can invite his presence into our midst? He reigns. Let him. “Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.” -gm

“But without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” (Hebrews 11:6).

"I love them that love me and those that seek me
early will find me"
(Proverbs 8:17).

The Church Lady

There was a little old lady who was very spiritual who would step out on her porch every day, raise her arms
to the sky and yell, "Praise the Lord"

One day, an atheist bought the house next door to her, and he became very irritated with the spiritual lady. So after a month or so of her yelling, "Praise the Lord" from her porch, he would go outside on his porch and yelled back, "There is no Lord."

Yet, the little old lady continued. One cold, wintry day, when the little old lady couldn't get to the store, she went out on her porch, raised her hands up to the sky and said, "Help me Lord, I have no more money, it's cold, and I have no more food."

The next morning, she went outside, and there were bags of food on the porch, enough to last her a week. "Praise the Lord," she yelled.

The Atheist stepped out from the bushes and said, "There is no Lord, ha ha ha, I bought those groceries!" :) (Hold on . . the ending is VERY good!).
The little old lady raised her arms to the sky and said, "Praise the Lord, You sent me groceries and you made the Devil pay for them!"

School: A little girl had just finished her first week of school. I'm just wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write and they won't let me talk!"

Until next Time. Willie
