I Can Do all Things Through Christ.

Do you ever feel like the Lord is calling you to do something, but you just don't feel qualified or equipped to do it? Maybe you feel afraid to be successful so you keep thinking about all of the reasons why you can't fulfill God's will. For me, Doubt has stopped me cold when I let my thoughts convince me that it is impossible to do what God is calling me to do.

I am serving notice on my own fears today: I may not be the most talented, skillful, or prepared person for the job that the Lord is calling me to do, but no one else will be able to do what the Lord has called me to do, so I might as well, Just Do It! I can either dwell on past failures, or I can build a future. The choice is mine.

Paul admonishes us to "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. [The Lord continually offers us opportunities to be successful: he opens effectual doors for us.]

Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.... But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-13; 19).

It Couldn't Be Done

Edgar Guest

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.
Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.
There are thousands to tell you
it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you,
one by one,
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

Thank you for being here today to worship the Lord in Spirit and in Truth. gm

Oh, be careful what you post.....

Email Goes Astray

This is allegedly based on a true story. Guy and
Will leave the final decision to you:

Mr Arnold, a businessman from Tulsa, Oklahoma, went on a business trip to Amarillo, Texas. He immediately sent an e-mail back home to his wife, Paula. Unfortunately, he forgot his wife's exact e-mail address and the e-mail ended up going to a Mrs. P.
Arnold in Rapid City, South Dakota, the wife of a preacher who had just died. The preacher's wife, Penny, took one look at the e-mail and promptly fainted.

When she was finally revived by her daughter, Penny hysterically pointed to the message, which read, 'Arrived safely, but it sure is hot down here.'
