It’s Time to Give God our Best.

“Jesus, the same yesterday, today, and forever.” I woke up this morning with this scripture on my lips. In my dream, I was testifying about how wonderful God has been to me and where he has brought me from. For every stage of my walk with God, I talked about how great the Lord has been to me. It doesn’t matter how hopeless the situation seemed to me: Jesus was the same yesterday, today and forever. When I woke up, I was speaking the treasured verse out loud. Jesus, the same yesterday, today and forever. No matter what the challenges we face in life, we can overcome them if we realize this truth that we serve a God who can not fail. He never changes. He isn’t worried about the turmoil in the world. He doesn’t fret when the storms of life come. He stays the same. He is always faithful, always dependable. He never forgets his promises, over 3000 of them in the word of God. “Lo, I am with you alway even unto the end of the earth.” We need to be reminded that we serve the one true God. He isn’t frail or uncaring. He is solid and a present help in the time of trouble. “Casting all of your care upon him; for he careth for you ” (1 Peter 5:7). And “My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19).

I spend a lot of time getting tangled up with agendas, schedules, work responsibilities, and this is important; however, I need to remember that the time I spend in his presence, in fellowship with him is all important. It is my desire that during the incredibly busy season that I remember the most important times in my life are built around being in his presence, for it’s in his presence that there’s fullness of joy and at his right hand are pleasures forevermore. We need to be about our father’s business, true, but let’s don’t allow working for the Lord to become a substitute for prayer, worship, and spending time at his feet. Remember, Mary chose the good part, and she reaped the blessings from it. Martha was doing important things, but she left out the most important thing—sitting at the Master’s feet to learn from him.

Isn’t it time that we got a fresh glimpse of quality time that we can spend with Jesus? How many hours have YOU prayed this week? I dare say we could all spend more time in prayer. If we did there’d be less time worrying about our plans for life. We would have the assurance that his will should be done. Let’s give our schedules to him today, and forget about the cares of this life, for a while. Let’s make this place a sanctuary of worship and prayer. If we will spend quality time with Jesus, he will be glorified, and we’ll see the fruit from our labors, for he says our labor is not in vain. We have a lot to be thankful for this year. Most importantly, no matter what the circumstance: ALL IS WELL with my soul.—gm

We have some amazing young people at POG!

This past week they were at Junior Camp. Josue Jeronimo was filled with the Holy Ghost, and lives were changed. The brothers pictured at the right are from the Pre Teen class. Josue Jeronimo, Alex
Wood, Hunter Rouse, and Logan Drury. The sisters are Caidence
Sumner, Yasmine Thomas, Briana
Mcrae, Grace Page, and Sister Nicole Drury.

Let's never underestimate the potential that we have in our young people, because they are the church of not only tomorrow, but TODAY!

Drawing a picture of Jesus

A kindergarten teacher was walking around her classroom while her students drew pictures. One little girl was scribbling so intently that the teacher asked what she was drawing. The little girl replied, "I'm drawing a picture of Jesus." The teacher said, "Oh honey, nobody really knows for sure what Jesus looked like." The little girl, without missing a beat, responded,
"They will in a minute."

Until next Time.
