“For wisdom is better than rubies; and all things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

Lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment: That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.”

God's Will, Not my Own

I want to thank the Lord for keeping me safe and in his will. The longer I walk with God, the more I realize that living for God requires not only commitment but also confidence in God's promises. The promises of God are available to us but it's only our faith and obedience to God that will bring them to pass in our life. Prayer is the key to the promise.

Have you ever stopped and listened to your prayers? I did, and it sounded more like I was giving God my shopping list instead of my prayers and worship. The good thing, though, God was listening to my prayers too, and he cares about us because we are his children. He answers our prayers right on time; but even when he chooses to delay the answer, I am still blessed. If God never answers another prayer for me, he has already accomplished more in my lifetime than I deserve. I am thankful that he knows what is best for me.

What do I know about my future? It's in God's hands. As it is, he gently reminds me that his grace is sufficient. Lord, thank you for keeping me, even when I whine and complain like a spoiled child.

I used to think that everybody else got their prayers answered but me. When I watched other people, all I saw was how much they were being blessed. Life seemed so easy for them. It was as if they never had a care in the world. It bothered me so much that I made it a matter of prayer. During one of the hardest trials of my life, the Lord taught me a valuable lesson. It felt as though I would never get through this particular wilderness experience, and I even thought that maybe the Lord had abandoned me. For months I felt lost and the more I cried out to God, the more desperate I felt. One day changed everything, as I boldly demanded the Lord to do something to intervene in my situation. “Lord,” I said, “you’ve got to do something or I’m not going to make it.” I felt a peace wash over me, and then, he spoke to my spirit, “Why don’t you do something? I have given you the power to overcome this situation, but you haven’t stepped out in faith to make the change.”

Could I have the power to overcome within myself? My deliverance from fretting and worrying had come. God led me to find something to enjoy in every day, (some days I had to work very hard to find it) and to hold on to the most important treasures: love, family, home. Every day has a beauty all it's own. Every day is unique in its own way and it is up to us as Christians to treasure the day and to use it for his glory.

We are able to enjoy today because like every day, this is the day that the Lord has made and it is precious. We'll never have a second chance to live this day. Once the time is spent: it is gone. Thank you, Lord, for making this a day that matters. I am truly blessed. gm and those that seek me

early will find me”

God is Like a TV Commercial

Then there's the Sunday School teacher who had her 5th grade class watch commercials to see if they could use them to come up with ways to communicate truths about God.
Here's what they said:

God is like..

Allstate: You're in good hands.
Alka-Seltzer: Try him, you'll like Him

Tide: He gets the stains out that others leave behind.

Sears: He has everything.

A Ford: He's got a better idea.

Hallmark Cards: He cared enough to send the very best.

Bayer Aspirin: He works miracles.

Delta: He's ready when you are.

Alberto Vo-5: He holds through all kinds of weather.

Coke: He's the real thing.

The US Post Office: Neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, nor hail will keep Him from His appointed rounds.

Scotch Tape: You can't see Him, but you know He's there.

Dial Soap: Aren't you glad you've got Him? Don't you wish everybody did?

General Electric: He brings good things to life.

Wednesday nights. the children are practicing for the Christmas program. Pray for everyone involved in that project.
