“God is the Lord,
which hath shown us
light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto
the horns of the altar.
Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee. O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy
endureth forever”
(Psalm 118:27-29).

“He which soweth
sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give;
not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God
loveth a cheerful giver.”
(2 Corinthians 9:6-7).

Is There Anything too Hard for God?

We are in the middle of thirty days of prayer and fasting. It has changed my life. More than ever I am convinced that nothing shall be impossible to them that believe. Not everyone has that assurance, some people say that there is no hope in this world, and they are terribly wrong. We can have hope because we have Jesus. Unfortunately, they don't know my God. He is the Great, I Am. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. He doesn't change. He is faithful to meet our needs in his perfect time. He doesn't lie. We can be very disappointed by so called friends who haven't learned the art of following through on their promises. But with God, we never need to worry that he is not going to come through, because he can't lie. I am human, and believe me there have been times when I have questioned God's direction for my life. Even if I'm not really sure where he is leading me, I know that I can have faith in a God who cares about what happens to me.

If you are concerned about finances, today, give. Nothing turns the devil on his heels quicker than someone who will put their trust in God and overcome greed. It will free the Lord's hand to release the miracles in your life. No one will ever out give God, so give. We have a promise in Luke 6:38: “Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.” He is more than enough.

It's so easy to quit when things get hard and discouraging. You think that the circumstances that you are having to endure will never end, and that you will always be miserable. Look up and see that God is in control. You are just before a breakthrough. Our problem is that we've become complacent and satisfied with our walk with God. We are too comfortable living our lives to be available for the Lord's use. He wants to open our eyes to his light.

Just before the breakthrough, your life may seem out of control. Let me ask you, Is there anything too hard for God? A thousand times, No! If nothing is too hard for God, why do we insist on fitting God into a box? We limit the Holy One of Israel with our attitude—doubts, fears and unbelief keep us from receiving our miracle. We know that the Lord, created the heavens and the earth and all that is within, but then our little problems present themselves and we can't see that the Lord is working out all things for our good. He spoke the world into existence and yet he is unable to heal us of a cold? That doesn't make much sense. It's high time to believe God.

This is a place where we do believe God is a God of the Miraculous. If we believe it, we can receive it. Thank you for joining us today. May the Lord richly bless you. Feel free to worship him in Spirit and in Truth. gm

Welcome to all guests. You're invited to join us for light refreshments immediately following service.

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.”
