“Wherefore he saith,
Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ
shall give thee light.
See then that ye walk
circumspectly, not as
fools, but as wise,
Redeeming the time,
because
the days are evil.
Wherefore be ye
not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is”
(Ephesians 5:14-17).

If We Could Only Open Our Eyes

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled. Wherefore, seeing we also have compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God” (Hebrews 12:1-2; 12:14-15).

The battle is not yours, it belongs to Jesus Christ.

What would it be like if we could see how the angels are moving in step with every move we make in the name of Jesus? Think about it; you have nothing to fear because you can see the angels who have come to fight the Lord's battle. How often we move through our days with break neck speed only to realize when the day is over that we haven't spent any quality time with family or with God. The Lord lets us know that we will go through trials in this life, but when they come, it's no time to back down or give up on God! He is the only sure foundation. Everything that we put our hand to do may fail, but we can rest assured that long after we have lost everything that we thought was important:

God will be there for us. It's hard to believe that he'd let us struggle so, but I wish that the Lord would let us get a glimpse of the angels who are encamped about us just waiting to come to our defense. Job lost it all, but if you'll look at the end of the book, he gained everything back and a double portion. We will end up with more than we could ever imagine possible, if we learn to trust in God and lean not to our own understanding.

When we forget to pray about situations, the Lord reminds us that we must trust him to know what is best for us. When he withholds the things that we desire the most, it is still for God's glory and he will be working all things out for our good according to his purpose in his time. He makes sure that the right circumstance will be available to cause us to triumph.

Are you ready to take the next step and reach a deeper place in God? Or, do you feel like I have felt on occasion, clueless about the best way to do it. Sometimes we feel abandoned: we have convinced ourselves that we are the only ones living for God. If only we could see what the Lord has in store for us; if we'll only believe that he is “a rewarder of those who diligently seek him,” there will be nothing to stop us from reaching our full potential in Christ! Have faith in God.

Welcome to The Pentecostals of Greenville. We are so excited that you chose to join us today! gm

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.”

Enjoy Tech Support....

- Tech Support: "Customer Support, this is David, may I help you?"
 - Customer: "Hello, yes, it's me."
 - Tech Support: "Oh, it's me too." [chuckle]
 - Customer: "No, Esmie. E, s, m, i, e."
 - Tech Support: "Oh, sorry."
 - Tech Support: "I need you to right-click on the Open Desktop."
 - Customer: "Ok."
 - Tech Support: "Did you get a pop-up menu?"
 - Customer: "No."
 - Tech Support: "Ok. Right click again. Do you see a pop-up menu?"
 - Customer: "No."
 - Tech Support: "Ok, sir. Can you tell me what you have done up until this point?"
 - Customer: "Sure, you told me to write 'click' and I wrote 'click'."
- (At this point I had to put the caller on hold to tell the rest of the tech support staff what had happened. I couldn't, however, stop from giggling when I got back to the call.)
- Tech Support: "Ok, did you type 'click' with the keyboard?"
 - Customer: "I have done something dumb, right?"

Until next time, Willie
