Whatsoever Ye Shall Ask in My Name...

Because the world prospers all around us, it seems that others never struggle. Trust in the Lord. After all, why should we fret? We are part of a thriving and growing city. Let’s not forget our vision for Greenville. Let’s not grow weary in well-doing as we labor together with the Lord. The work may seem unduly hard, and the harvest slow in coming, but we must learn to trust God and lean not to our own understanding.

If we allow ourselves to be drawn toward our struggles and away from our rewards, the way will be discouraging. However, if we can get our eyes on Jesus, then we can be assured that all is well with our souls. The things that I can’t understand, I learn to accept as being part of God’s plan in my life. Along with acceptance, I am learning to do the work of the Lord with my whole heart, submitting to the will of the Father, giving thanks that he has chosen me to be his daughter.

Teach me, Lord, to lean on you when I am weary from fighting spiritual warfare. Uphold me with your right hand. Renew my strength through praise, prayer, the word, and power in the Holy Ghost. The Joy of the Lord is my strength, and the Lord is faithful concerning his promises. Give me a heavenly vision. Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in everything.

What is a friend? A friend is someone who is always available if you need help. They are never too busy to see you, and when you are at your lowest point, they know the best things to say to encourage you to keep moving forward. A friend will allow you to exist and find peace. When I’m with a friend, I don’t feel pressured to fill in the gaps of silence with talk. If I talk, it’s okay, but if I don’t, that’s okay too. It is such a blessing to have someone to care about you.

When I was introduced to my greatest friend my life was complete. We are complete in him, Jesus Christ. It is good to know that I’ve been redeemed. I can sit with my friend and I don’t have to talk, he knows my very thoughts and the intents of my heart. We walk together through all of the day, and when I have the pressures of daily life, I can turn to my friend and he will be right with me. He takes the time to spend with me, and he’ll do the same for you. He is never slack concerning his promises; he is never too busy; he never gets depressed; he never loses his compassion for our needs. He sticketh closer than a brother, and when I go to sleep at night, he doesn’t leave me alone. I know that I can depend on God to do his perfect will in my life, even when I have questions. Let God lead you into all truth. Trust him.

What are you believing God for today? Your health? Finances? Your salvation? Isn’t it time to pray? This very day your miracle is waiting for you. Worship him and be blessed as we continue with this service. gm

The Pentecostals of Greenville invites you to participate in the March of Miracles. Our vision is to collect your testimonies of answered prayers, healings, provision and financial blessings, opened doors, deliverance, salvation, and so much more; to be published in the Lattereign, on our church website, and eventually in a booklet. Thank you for taking the time to share your miracle. Be sure to get a submission form in the foyer, or you may send it to us via email to: lattereign7@gmail.com. It's time to tell others what the Lord has done for you.

Willie's Korner

Crystal Boseman, has been teaching approximately 15 years. She has wanted to be a teacher since third grade, but she never realized that it would be teaching Sunday school. Crystal also is a greeter, choir member, and church food coordinator. She always has a smile on her face and is willing to help in any way she can in the church.

Connor Wood, has been teaching four years. He started helping five years ago with the Super Choir, now known as Kidtricity. He is also involved in the choir and ushering. Connor said that he likes, “teaching children in the kindergarten class because they have a great imagination, and all the children laugh at his dancing.” He said, “You have to get them involved somehow.”

Thank you Crystal and Connor for your willingness to teach each Sunday so children can learn more about Jesus. We are blessed to have them at the POG. Until next time, Willie
