My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
(1 John 2:1)

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
(2 Corinthians 12:9)

Welcome to all guests.

You're invited to join us for light refreshments immediately following service.

We Have an Advocate

How many times do we actually meditate on that truth? Our society has a tendency to forget the Lord and what he can do for his people if we'll only trust him to bring it to pass. Nothing's too hard for God to do, so with that in mind, consider this week's Latter Reign:

There is nothing too hard for God. So many times we know how to believe God for other people, because God is a miracle working God. He knows every thing and he is sovereign. He meets all of our needs. He knows my uprising and my down sitting. He knows the very hairs of my head and still he is mindful of all his creation. He created the universe and he filled it with his glory, and still, he lives in me. His splendor outshines anything that man could ever put together. If you're sitting here today and worshiping God then he'll meet you. God is truly more than enough to supply every need that we could ever have. Since God is all of these things: why do we fret when we feel pressure from the world? I must stay in prayer and encourage myself in the Lord, even when it seems that I walk alone.

Wednesday night Bible study—If you've been unable to attend on Wednesdays, you owe it to yourself, and to your walk with God to make arrangements to attend. The current Bible study has truly been a blessing. Thank you, Pastor Lappin, for preaching the Truth.

The world tries in every way that it can to keep the saints of God defeated. If I allow the world to convince me that joy in the Holy Ghost isn't for me, today, I may not pray until I have the joy of the Lord, which is my strength. If I'm not convinced that God is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him, I might not bother to seek him. I know, beyond a doubt, that loving God with all of my heart, soul, mind, and strength, will cause me to triumph with confidence.

When I ask God for his will: and question it; he teaches me to have faith. I used to worry until the Lord spoke to me through his word, "My grace is sufficient for thee," and because he overcame the world, the enemy can't destroy me. He told me to trust in him to bring a peace that passes all understanding, and now, the peace has arrived in my life, in the midst of the storm. It's the same peace that I want the world to be confounded by when they see me. I may not have all of the answers, or know how the Lord will bring it all to pass, but I know that he's faithful to deliver his promises. We serve a mighty God, and when people see me, I want them to see Jesus. God spoke the worlds into existence.

There's no fear when we trust him; there's no compromise if we walk with him. Compromise yields great pressure; standing on truth of God's word will help you endure it to the end. —gm

“But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.”

“God’s Mercy is Great”

Sister Manning was blessed with a Lincoln Continental that was gifted to the church by Sister Whipple. She has provided transportation for residents of the nursing home for 20 years. God is so good to us. There was a conspiracy afoot in the church to make this happen. Thank you to Ken Jacobs, Jose Jeronimo, Mike Laurin, Sister Whipple, and Pastor Lappin for setting the wheels of provision in motion for this great cause. What a blessing!

Send your testimonies to lattereign7@gmail.com to be published in the Lattereign, on our church website, and eventually in a booklet.

It's that time again.

We need candy and eggs for the Easter egg hunt that will take place on Sunday, April 16, during Sunday School.

This Sunday we will be giving out socks for the Save our Children offering.

Save our Children is the primary source of revenue for the General Sunday School Division. Fifty percent of the funds stay in the North Carolina District, and helps to fund special projects for junior Camp, teacher training workshops, and fifty percent General Sunday School District for Sunday School Ministries.

There's always great things happening at the POG Sunday school!

Until next time, Willie
