Keep on Trusting—You Will Overcome

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony” (Revelation 12:11).

Let's be reminded that no matter how challenging the situations that we must face in our walk with God, that he is faithful and he cares about us. Yet, once again, his love is confirmed in my life. To God be the Glory for the great things he has done. He is truly the healer of all of our diseases, and there is nothing impossible or too difficult for God to handle.

Didn't he cause the stars, suspended between heaven and the earth, to shine? My God shall supply all of our needs according to his riches in glory. He is a great God, and he gives great promises if we can only trust him to work them out for our good.

“And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment” (Mark 12:30).

“Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path” (Psalm 119:105).

You can spend hours, days, even years begging to get chosen to go into the battle, but if you never take the time to prepare as we are directed in Ephesians—
“Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on your breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.” (Ephesians 6:13-17)—you will never reach your destination.

It's not about waiting to get called to work for the Lord, it is about taking steps to move closer in the direction of your goals.

Never quit; keep working. The work that you do now, may seem so insignificant; but it may well be an integral part of God's grand design for your life! When we stop believing and grow weary in the fight, he picks up our shield and our sword, and he fights our battle for us. We can depend on him to stand in the gap; but, isn't it time that we learned how to stand on his Word and stand in the gap for others?

How can they know, if we aren't willing to go and do the work that he has called us to do? The answer is something to pray about. Praise him in the sanctuary!

“I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord.” -gm

"But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed."

There are two ways that you can be a blessing. When you receive your miracles of healing and answered prayer, you can either write up the details and turn them in to an usher, if you don't see me, (Sister Grace Morgan), or you can send your testimonies to lattereign7@gmail.com to be published in the Lattereign, on our church website, and eventually in a booklet. Let's proclaim the Name of Jesus!

Where God Ain't !!!

Author Unknown

He was just a little lad, and on the week's first day.

He was wandering home from Sunday School, and dawdling on the way. He scuffed his shoes into the grass; he found a caterpillar;

He found a fluffy milkweed pod, and blew out all the "filler."

A bird's nest in a tree o'er head so wisely placed on high,

Was just another wonder that caught his eager eye.

A neighbor watched his zigzag course, and hailed him from the lawn;

Asked him where he'd been that day, and what was going on.

"I've been to Bible school," he said, and turned a piece of sod.

He picked up a wiggly worm and said, "I've learned a lot of God."

"M'm a very fine way," the neighbor said, "for a boy to spend his time."

"If you'll tell me where God is, I'll give you a brand new dime."

Quick as a flash his answer came! Nor were his accents faint.

"I'll give you a dollar, Mister, if you'll tell me where God ain't!"
