"Who shall lay any thing to the charge
of God's elect?

It is God that
justifieth.

Who is he that
condemneth?

It is Christ that died, yea rather
that is risen again,
who is even at the
right hand of God,
who also maketh
intercession

for us"

There is No Condemnation

Lord, You gave me the gift of the Holy Ghost forty-four years ago while I was praying beside my bed. When I was eight years old, I used to think that the only place I could find you was at the altar. Now that I have walked with you most of my life, I realize that wherever I am, I can call on you and you'll be with me. You have led me through some storms that I never thought I would have to go through, but still, all in all, we made it together. My faith grew stronger and you showed me how mighty you truly are.

For a while, the pull of the world and my desire to experience it, took me away from your presence. The worst mistake of my life was turning back into sin. It didn't matter where I entertained the pleasures of this life, you were there with me. It convicted me and the further I moved away from your presence the closer you were to me.

When the last calls were announced for the night, I had to face the emptiness of my life. In the void you waited for me to turn around and reach up my arms to you. The promises you made never changed. After ten years of running from rejection, you began to restore my spiritual health. Then I recognized the Holy Ghost in a friend from school and I searched for truth. I found it here in this church. I came back into the church again, battered from the torments of sin and guilt, and for a long time I couldn't forgive myself for the mistakes that I had made. Oh, they were plenty. I repented all over again and still felt unworthy to be in your presence. You, the omnipotent God: Holy and righteous. Who was I?

One day I cried out to him, "How could you ever forgive someone who has done the terrible things that I have done? I kept weeping, not really listening to what the Lord was trying to show me. My past mistakes and the guilt I carried as a result, had to be resolved if I was ever going to be free from the bondage of sin in my life. My past mistakes shouldn't have to determine my future. I know now that my future is in Jesus Christ, and that I am redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

In Romans 8:1-4. "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit" (Romans 8:1-4). I am free from the past, and because of Jesus I have a bright future. gm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."
