“Thanks, Lord, for all you’ve done”

- “1. I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
3. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.
4. I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.
5. They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
6. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
7. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about him that fear him, and delivereth them.
8. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in God.
9. O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.” (Psalm 34:1-9).

It is good to learn from our past mistakes. We are four days away from the “official” day of thanks. Thanksgiving Day is one of the few holidays left where people stick the closest to traditional activities. Although this past year has been difficult we still have a lot to be thankful for, and it’s time to focus on something positive for a change. Lord, I thank you that you have blessed me with a family and friends. I thank you for your provision.

Thank you for keeping me healthy. It seems that every year we are pressed down with extra responsibilities and demands on our time. I want to thank the Lord that we do have this challenge, because if we weren’t pressed for time we may never get anything accomplished in the kingdom of God. By putting our energies toward succeeding we are going to reap a harvest.

Thanksgiving is a time to spend with family and friends. It may not always be the easiest appointment to keep, but if you do spend time with your family, you’ll have great rewards. The Lord’s blessings are bountiful, and he is the almighty God. He is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness, and he will pour you out a blessing that you can’t contain. Have faith in God and thank him for all that he has done.

God bless you and your family this year. gm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

Mission Statement:

The Pentecostals of Greenville is an Apostolic church. We are committed to exalt Jesus Christ; to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth; to proclaim the gospel; to evangelize our community; to minister to people's needs & to provide a spiritual atmosphere of fellowship and growth.

"Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man"

(Colossians 4:6).

Let's Talk Even More Turkey!

What did the mama turkey say to her naughty son? If your papa could see you now, he'd turn over in his gravy! Why did the turkey cross the road? It was the chicken's day off.

If the Pilgrims were alive today, what would they be most famous for? Their AGE

Why can't you take a turkey to church? Because they use such FOWL language.

What are the feathers on a turkey's wings called? Turkey feathers

Can a turkey jump higher than the Empire State Building? Yes-a building can't jump at all

What do you get when you cross a turkey with an octopus? Enough drumsticks for Thanksgiving

Which side of the turkey has the most feathers? The outside

Why did they let the turkey join the band? Because he had the drumsticks

Why did the police arrest the turkey? They suspected it of fowl play

Happy Thanksgiving! Gobble, Gobble. :-)
