"We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." Will you Choose to Believe?

"And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief" (Matthew 13:57-58).

During the storm Jesus came walking on the water and Peter wanted to join him. As long as he kept his eyes on Jesus, he could go through the winds, but when he allowed doubt and fear to rule in his life he began to sink. Jesus was there to rescue Peter. "And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?" (Matthew 14:31).

The reason we don't see more miracles in our churches is that people do not fully put their trust and belief in Jesus Christ. That may seem a silly notion: after all, didn't he speak the worlds into existence? Why is it that we have difficulty believing that God is all powerful and our healer? I need to pray more and ask God to help me to believe. It's only natural to have biggie size faith for someone else, but when it comes down to my life, my needs, I have a tendency to rationalize and decide that it works for everyone else, but not for me, Lord.

As we allow our thoughts to dictate our heart, we begin to speak the word of doubt, and Jesus has to say that he couldn't do the miracles that he wanted to do because the people didn't believe.

How sad, that people who come for help, in dire circumstances, must go away from our churches in the same manner as they came. What does this do? It causes them to doubt that God loves them and cares about them. The very thing that they desire is kept from them because people who know the truth and come to church so often that it has become just another pastime, don't believe God will work miracles today.

Before we can obtain all of the promises of God, we must be obedient to his will. We can't allow our spirit to hinder the work of the Holy Ghost in our midst. I am ready to see more and more of the miracle working power of Jesus. I want to experience the anointing that breaks the yoke, I want speak the word of faith and tell cancer, diabetes, heart disease, arthritis, polio, glaucoma, the common cold: Go, in Jesus' Name, and have them to leave immediately.

Nothing is impossible to them that believe, but it will take more than a haphazard skip through the Bible and through the prayer room five minutes before service, to cause the miracles that I'm talking about to come to pass. Is there anyone reading this that really desires to be a part of Apostolic Revival at The Pentecostals of Greenville?

Make your choice, today: Believe that God can and will do it. And, start to exercise your faith to receive your miracle. Worship with us. -gm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

Willie's Korner

The Vancouver Sun printed these actual children's answers given on a Bible knowledge test:

1) Joshua led the Hebrews in the battle of Geritol.

2) Moses went to the top of Mount Cyanide to get the 10 Commandments.

3) The seventh commandment is "Thou shalt not admit adultery."

4) Lot's wife was a pillar of salt by day and a ball of fire by night.

5) Paul preached acrimony, which is another name for marriage.

6) David fought the Finkelsteins, a race of people who lived in Biblical times.

7) A Christian should have only one wife. This is called monotony. (From "Perspectives")

The Pentecostals —Quick lines

* What's next? All that is left to do is to praise him. We have been very busy in the past few months. Sometimes, when we get too busy, we forget to pray.

* Has your light gone out? Then, it's time to refuel and ignite a fresh Pentecostal flame. This city need people who are not afraid to proclaim the gospel.

* Shine your light brightly in the darkened world without God.

* When the dust settles: God is.

* God's attitude: "If you don't care, I don't care" (Ephesians 3:12-21).

* Quote: "I smell the aroma of the buffet banquet coming out of the heavenly kitchen of glory" (Kenny Marshburn).
