Rejoice: The King is Coming!

“For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace” (Isaiah 9:6).

His Name is truly Wonderful! We have hope because He was born. Jesus Christ came to redeem the world back to Himself and His love is unsurpassed. It is such a blessing to be able to worship a living God and to be in his presence today.

“The angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy”. Luke 2:10

They proclaimed a gift to the world that money couldn't buy. Now, parents worry that they aren't spending enough money for gifts. Every Christmas we are reminded of just how blessed we are as a people. You may not be able to buy all of the material things that usually go along with Christmas, but if you will focus on those things that have the greatest value: your relationship with God and your family, you will be blessed beyond measure. I'm reminded of how it was at home during Christmas:

It didn't matter how much we begged our parents to let us open up our presents on Christmas Eve. It was an unspoken rule in our house: you are supposed to wait until Christmas morning at 3:00 AM, for that was the longest Daddy could wait to open gifts. Those were good memories—today, it's more difficult to find the wonder—tell me, what can take the place of new socks, stockings filled with hard candy that always stuck together, the smell of peeled oranges, and the most wonderful of all: the family together in one accord?

Everything has drastically changed. As we allow old traditions to slip away, I'm glad that one of my favorite traditions has stayed firmly in our grasp: the annual Children's Christmas Program. We hope you enjoy, “Christmas in Black and White.”

May the Lord bless you and your family richly this holiday season. Look around—you will see miracles—lives that Jesus bought with his blood. He wants to work a miracle in your life today. –gm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."
