This is the Day Which the Lord Hath Made

“This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it....“God is the Lord, which hath show us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar” (Psalm 118:24, 27).

Throughout Psalms we read how David praised the Lord in the midst of great trials and tribulations. In Psalm 118, we're instructed to give thanks because the Lord is good and his mercy endures forever. David believed that “it is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man”; he continues to exalt the Lord. The more he praises the Lord, the more strength he gains to overcome all obstacles that Satan would like to put in his path.

We are much like David today. He didn't have a monopoly on God's provision or protection; because the same God that kept David, waits for us to worship him with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength. This is the day that the Lord hath made. He made it for us to rejoice and to be glad. So as we come into his presence today, let's bring the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for the great things he has done. “God is the Lord, which hath shown us light.”; but have you ever felt trapped in a situation? I have. When we go through difficult times, it's hard to see God's light because we make our problems bigger than God. We see God through the small end of the binoculars, and we limit Him. We can't see our way out of trouble; so we become weak.

“When I am weak; he is strong.” When I falter; he lifts me up so that I can stand; when I have no more strength; he defends me with his presence. His plans for me are extraordinary and I'm looking through the binoculars backwards? Instead of wondering how God is going to bring it to pass, I need to spend my time trusting that God is going to do it and lean not to my own understanding.

There are no limits of what God desires to do for his children, unfortunately, we place limits on ourselves. Why do I fear when the Lord promises me over and over again that he will destroy my enemies?

When David cried out to the Lord, in verse five, the Lord responded to his cry by “setting him in a large place.” No matter what you are called to do it comes down to this: If you ever want to get anything from the Lord, you must bring your sacrifice, bind it to the altar and leave it there. Have faith in God. gm

STORIES TO Tell:

An Amish boy and his father were visiting a mall. They were amazed by almost everything they saw, but especially by two shiny, silver walls that could move apart and back together again.

The boy asked his father, "What is this, Father?" The father responded "Son, I have never seen anything like this in my life, I don't know what it is."

While the boy and his father were watching wide-eyed an old lady in a wheel chair rolled up to the moving walls and pressed a button. The walls opened and the lady rolled between them into a small room. The walls closed and the boy and his father watched small circles of lights with numbers above the walls light up. They continued to watch the circles light up in the reverse direction. The walls opened up again and a beautiful 24 year old woman stepped out. The father said to his son, "Go get your Mother."

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate,
 And never as people do now;
 He took no account of the calorie count;
 He ate it because it was chow.
 He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat,
 Devouring a roast or a pie
 To think it was lacking in granular fat,
 Or a couple of vitamins shy
 He cheerfully chewed every species of food,
 Unmindful of troubles or fears
 Lest his health might be hurt by some fancy dessert,
 And he lived over nine hundred years.

A man in a hurry taking his 8-year-old son to school, made a turn at a red light where it was prohibited. "Uh-oh, I just made an illegal turn!" the man said. "Aw, Dad, it's okay" the son said. "The police car right behind us did the same thing."

Until next time, Willie
