Be a Light in this World

I remember in one of the major storms we had, the electricity went out as a result of a transformer being hit nearby, so we were left in the dark. My first response was to go and get the flashlight. (This happened before cell phones.) I had a fairly good idea of where it was at, but it meant that I had to feel my way through the living room the kitchen, and go into the laundry room to find it in the cabinet. I don't know about you, but sometimes in the dark I get a little disoriented, so I reached out for the walls and slowly maneuvered through the obstacles. Finally, I reached the flashlight, but, of course, the batteries were dead.

Next to the flashlight, we also had candles and matches, and I was relieved to finally strike the match to get the candle lit, which helped me to locate the fresh batteries, and once again, all was well in the Morgan household.

Light makes a difference in our lives. I remember that before I started walking with the Lord, my life was so dark. I didn't have any hope that things would get better because I failed to see what was ahead of me. All I could see, was my past, and my hopes for my future, well, it looked dim looking through my lens of unforgiveness.

I knew what I had to do to find forgiveness, so I turned my life over to Jesus Christ. I got saved and baptized in Jesus Name, and was filled with the baptism of the Holy Ghost. The Lord saved me, and I was in awe that he loved me that much. On the other hand, Satan didn't want me to let my past be gone, so he kept reminding me of it every time that I looked in the mirror.

It was crippling to even listen to his words but as a new Christian, I still felt remorse although Jesus kept asking me all the time, "what sin are you talking about? I only see your life through my blood that was shed at Calvary." He showed me that I don't have to be condemned anymore because I belong to him. I hold on to that promise. I was so ready for lasting change in my life and all I had left to do was receive it.

The day that I made up my mind that this is what I wanted, I found the light of the world. I didn't have to live in shame or regret the time wasted on things that led to a deeper sorrow, but I could receive his forgiveness and even greater still, I could forgive myself, once and for all.

Are we prepared to shine when the darkness covers the earth, or are we spiritually dead inside? How can we reach our city with the gospel if we are barely able to shine God's light? Too long we have tried to cover the light that is burning within our souls because we are afraid to draw attention to our past. We have been uninvolved, uncommitted, and unmotivated; but, it's time to awaken out of sleep.

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 5:14-16). Are you ready to be a light in the darkness? Why not, today? -gm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

Mission Statement:

The Pentecostals of Greenville is an Apostolic church. We are committed to exalt Jesus Christ; to worship Him in Spirit and in Truth; to proclaim the gospel; to evangelize our community; to minister to people's needs & to provide a spiritual atmosphere of fellowship and growth.

The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand. I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread. He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed"
(Psalm 37:23-26).

It's TIME FOR CANDY!

It is time to bring candy, candy, candy (preferably in prefilled Easter eggs) that we can use in the Sunday School for our annual Easter egg hunt. Our goal is a thousand eggs this year. Help us be a blessing!

Today is First Fruits Offering. Let's let our giving be a good start in building our future. Thank you in advance for your overwhelming response and obedience to the will of God.

Have you ever wondered why...? You can fill in the unanswered questions with a multitude of answers, but to the question of, how can I be saved?, there is only one way, and that is through Jesus Christ.

A Penny for Your Thoughts After tucking their three-year-old child Danny in for bed one night, his parents heard sobbing coming from his room. Rushing back in, they found him crying hysterically. He managed to tell them that he had swallowed a penny and he was sure he was going to die. No amount of talking was helping. His father, in an attempt to calm him down, palmed a penny from his pocket and pretended to pull it from Danny's ear. Danny was delighted. In a flash, he snatched it from his father's hand, swallowed, and then cheerfully demanded,

"Do it again, Dad!"
