It Seems Like It Was Only Yesterday

It seems like it was only yesterday that I couldn't wait to get up to go to my first day of first grade. I was in Mrs. Langston's class and she always had a ready smile when we greeted her. It wasn't that long ago when the greatest concerns I had were how many pieces of first grade artwork I could show my sister's boyfriend before she rescued him.

It was only yesterday that I climbed into the top of an oak tree and put my foot in the rope knot and jumped. Tarzan had nothing on me as I barely missed the picnic table below.

It was only yesterday that we were convinced that a monster lived in the little shack across the ditch bank at our school. It took months to convince us otherwise; we played cautiously avoiding even a slight glance towards the shack.

It seems like only yesterday when we lost the tournament because our team captain didn't know how to play Tic-Tac-Toe. We were really upset with him because we answered all of the questions that were asked. When we went to the gameboard to claim our square, he didn't have a strategy to give us the most chances to win. We had study guides filled with the questions, answers, and Bible references. I can remember pouring in knowledge from those books memorizing great portions of it. Like all sports, however, winning isn't always the one with the most points.

I suppose that it's easy to place blame on others instead of taking responsibility for our own actions. We had the Bible knowledge, and we were prepared to go to battle; but, in our zeal to win—we forgot to remember the reason why we were studying. Being a part of the team means that you work together. Teams are unified. They set a purpose to exist, and spend a lifetime fulfilling that purpose.

It seems like only yesterday that I began my journey with the Lord. It has been a marvelous journey and I am truly blessed. They are truly winners because they have learned the Word of God, and I want to encourage them to continue studying the scriptures.

“Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart...Trust in the Lord with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes; fear the Lord, and depart from evil.” (Proverbs 3:3-6).

Let's worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness -gm

THOUGHTS TO PONDER,

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him (Hebrews 11:6).

It's a matter of perspective...

A man: God, how much is a million dollars to you?

God: It is but a penny.

A man: God, how long is a million years to you?

God: It is but a second.

A man: God, could you please give me a penny?

God: Sure, just a second. University of Warwick
Christian Union

Did you know?....

Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisors.

It is easier to preach ten sermons than it is to live one.

The good Lord didn't create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.
