Welcome to The Pentecostals of Greenville.

We invite you to worship freely in this place. If this is your first time visiting us at the POG, you're invited to join us immediately after service for light refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Veterans Day, A Time of Reflection

Today, we are the overcomers, and we are celebrating Veteran's Day and that is such a blessing. Those who have stood the test of time and circumstance to defend our country: the Lord will bless mightily; we give them honor. Today, we have an opportunity to honor the Lord with our praise and worship. He deserves our time and adoration.

“Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto them, thou art my servant: I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Isaiah 41:9-10).

We have been chosen for this hour to fight the good fight of faith. Let us not grow weary in doing the work of the Lord, because the time for the Pentecostals of Greenville to become the light of Greenville has come. You are called for a purpose. If you have ever doubted your abilities or calling to a ministry, always remember that his grace is sufficient enough to equip you with the tools you will need in order to get the job done.

Don't give up; don't give in; don't fall by the wayside in defeat. Brush yourself off, get up in Jesus' name, and keep moving forward. He is still on the throne and in control of your circumstance, so you have no need to fear for he has already won the battle. It is up to us to learn how to follow in the shadow of his wings of protection.

Sometimes we may get discouraged if we don't see immediate results; however, that is the time to rejoice in the Lord always, because he is working out all things for our good. The bible says,

“In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good: (Ecclesiastes 11:6).

You just keep on sowing the seeds. Keep on encouraging the discouraged. Keep on obeying the Lord to deliver the message as he gives it to you. Nothing shall stop you from moving forward when you have a single purpose in mind: to do the work that the Lord has called you to. I sometimes feel that I don't have enough strength to do everything that I need to do; and I don't, but God does, and he will prevail if I will learn to trust him. He is always faithful, and he is a God of provision and strength. He is the healer of all our diseases, and he loadeth us with benefits. He is our Savior and he is coming soon. We must get prepared to meet him, and while we are waiting, we must do the work that he has called us to do.

“Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month (Joel 2:23). I am thankful that we can be in his presence, today. —gm
