“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in the readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled” (2 Corinthians 10:3-6).

Never forget That God is Faithful

There are times when it seems that God is so far away and that no amount of prayer can reach him. Sometimes we think that if God did happen to hear our prayer, he would probably turn away. This couldn't be farther from the truth. Consider how a God who robed himself in flesh so that he could purchase the price of our salvation, cares about us. Many times I have gone through seasons where nothing worked. In those times it was important to walk by faith, and not sight. What more did I have to lose: I couldn't doubt the power of God to heal. Instead of despair, I have learned to lift up my hands and worship him who created us from the dust.

It is time to rejoice and have confidence in God, unfortunately it is sometimes easier to say than to actually do; but it's necessary for your spiritual health to learn how to trust God to know the best for your life. He doesn't turn a deaf ear unto our cry. He hears us calling out and he has already prepared the answer, but the answer must be delivered, and that requires time.

“All things work together for good.” All things. Not just the great big problems; but the ones that we don't bother to pray about because they seem so insignificant. He says to ask what you will and it shall be given to thee.

I am so blessed and yet there are times when I feel that I'm missing the boat. The Lord cherishes us and we're his bride, and I understand that if it concerns us, it concerns him, because he loves us. But if in his wisdom, God decided that he had already given me enough blessings, it would be enough. If Jesus never grants my selfish petitions, he's still God, and I'll have everything I need to have a great life because Jesus is everything I need.

It's not in the car you drive or the clothes you wear, it isn't about the money in your bank accounts, or the position you hold. Those things have their place; but your relationship with Jesus Christ is much more important than all of that. At the end of life's road, will you have invested your money, time, and talents effectively to draw interest on your inheritance? Have you done enough? Are you pleased with the way that you involve yourself in ministry? Are you being as effective as you desire? And, if you're not as effective, where are you lacking?

Do people know that you are a Pentecostal? Think about it: will people want Jesus after they have watched your life?

“Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Hebrews 13:5). gm

“Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting on another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching ” (Hebrews 10:25).

Willie's Korner

Are you Ready to Tease Your Brain!

Bible Brain Teasers

There are names of 16 books of the Bible in this paragraph.
See how many you can find.

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu; kept people looking so hard for facts... and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you.

Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so that she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Relax now, for there really are sixteen names of the Bible in this paragraph.

As Pastor Lappin says,

“Keep the faith, and your faith will keep you; and if you feed your faith, you'll starve your doubts to death.”

Until next time, Willie
