“The earth is the Lord’s, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah”
(Psalm 24:1-6).

Desperate for a Change? Try Jesus.

There are many people, today, who wander aimlessly through life and have no immediate plans to live for God. Some people haven’t heard the Truth. It is up to us to make sure that they find direction and come to know Jesus Christ. Jesus preached in the synagogues; he healed the sick; and people followed him; however, they were still “scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd” (Matthew 9:36). It had an effect on Jesus Christ; he was “moved with compassion” and he told his disciples:

“The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest” (Matthew 9:37-38).

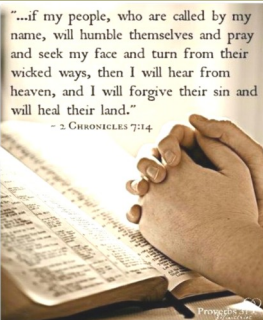

Ask yourself, when was the last time that you were moved with compassion for lost souls? I think we have all been guilty of being in a crowd of people, yet, not really seeing the people who are part of the crowd. It can be a lonely place for someone who is desperate for a change in their life. Let’s be that change.

It’ll take committed Christians to reap an eternal harvest. In every area of ministry, we are gaining strength and momentum. The Lord is doing a quick work. We are truly blessed to have freedom to worship the Lord in Spirit and in Truth. When we faithfully obey the word to “Go ye therefore into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature;” teach Bible studies; and compel people to come in; they will come, and lives will be changed by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Still, we need more labourers to reach more people, and we’re running out of time. It’s high time that we get alone with God and allow him to wash us again with his blood, to cleanse us and then to let us see the harvest field. Everywhere that we go, there are people who will die in their sins if we don’t reach them with the gospel. It’s in the streets, in the malls, at the grocery stores, in our own neighborhoods, that we’ll find people who are hungry for the Truth of Jesus Christ.

The Lord operates according to our faith in his promises. “Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee” (Matthew 9:2). He saw their faith. Have you ever wondered why we find it easier to believe God, when the blessing that we’re praying for is for someone else? We have difficulty convincing our self that the Lord wants to honor our faith. Is it so hard to understand how much that the Lord wants to bless us? Sometimes we may feel that we don’t deserve God’s blessings, so we never expect it to come to pass for ourselves. Our expectations and faith in God’s promises, determines whether we’ll have our petitions granted. Expect God’s best, honor your commitments to him, and you’ll receive it.

“But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then said he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house” (Matthew 9:5-6). His obedience brought the promise. Thank you for being with us, today. Let’s continue to seek the Lord and trust in him to guide our steps. gm

Two Little Boys

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved.

The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behavior. The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said, 'We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!' The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first. The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, 'Where is God?'

The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, 'Where is God?' Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, 'WHERE IS GOD?'

At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and asked what had happened. The younger brother replied, 'We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.'

Six-year-old Angie and her four-year-old brother Joel were sitting together during church services. Joel giggled, sang, and talked out loud. Finally, his big sister had enough. 'You're not supposed to talk out loud in church.'

'Why? Who's going to stop me?' Joel asked.

Angie pointed to the back of the church and said, 'See those two men standing by the door? They're hushers.'

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor" thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?"

Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."
