Don't Lose Hope; God's Not Finished Yet

On the corner of 11th and Forbes there was a church that stood as a lighthouse on a stormy night when I first moved to Greenville, NC. Grace and I found the missing part of ourselves in this building, but it was more than a building: it was a family of prayer warriors who weren't afraid to trust God and call on His name in prayer. The house is filled in the picture above; people are standing in the prayer room and the sides are opened to hold the crowds for the 26th Church Anniversary.

Much has happened since that time, and the Lord has blessed us with a new building at 2950 South Memorial Drive, a Family Life Center, and soon a new sanctuary! One thing has not changed: people who have been in this truth since the beginning have not lost hope. We see that the Lord has done great things in the past, but He is by far not finished yet!

It doesn't matter if you have been following Christ for forty plus years or if you are just beginning your journey. Forever the Lord's word is settled in heaven, and He has promised us a mighty outpouring of His Spirit on all flesh. We must complete this race. We must continue to contend for the faith because there is a precious promise that the Lord will not withhold from his children. Whatever you may be facing on your journey, remember that God is in control. Don't lose hope; He is not finished yet. –gm/wm

"...if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."
