Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

It's the Time of Harvest

(I was blessed to be a part of the first Spanish service last night at the POG with Pastor Cabrera, his wife Christina, and their family. With almost 40 in attendance, I believe God is going to do something great in the Spanish community in Greenville!)

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” (Isaiah 40:31) We are so blessed to live in a free country, and yet we often take for granted the rights that we have to worship. We have the freedom to lift up holy hands and magnify the Lord, but something holds us back from doing it. We have an abundance of Bibles, but they all collect dust because of neglect. We can go door to door and share the gospel, but we convince ourselves that nobody wants to hear what we have to say, nobody is interested in hearing about Jesus Christ. We try to justify our disobedience, yet all the while, people are crying out for something more from life.

They cry out, but how will they know if someone doesn't show them? What will it take to be used of God? Faith to believe that the Lord would call us to be used. Overcoming the doubt and believing that we are capable of being used. Forgiving ourselves for the times that we failed to allow God to use us. Obtaining a fresh anointing when we learn to seek the Lord until He may be found.

Determination to keep reaching out to those we meet everyday, becoming living epistles of His mercy and goodness. Lifting Him up, so that all men may be drawn to Him. Prayer: it is time to pray and seek the Lord. And after we have sown the seeds, we wait. No longer can we say the harvest is coming, for the harvest is already here, waiting to be gleaned.

We must keep trusting God. Don't give up on your dreams. Don't give up on your desires. Don't give up on God. Don't give up on yourself. The Lord knows the plans that He has for you. He desires that you prosper and be in good health, even as your soul prospers. Keep believing. Today, we can worship Him freely, so “Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.” (Psalm 100:4,5) -gm/wm
