Welcome to the Pentecostals

self who has the ultimate control of the universe and of my life. If God has control, then there really is no need to worry. "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isaiah 55:8-9) God knows what He's doing. Despite what we see happening around us, God does know what is best for us.

"And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed." (Deut. 31:8) Moses spoke these words to Joshua, to go into the Promise Land and possess it. We can have divine confidence that God goes before us and walks along side of us, that God is aware of all that has happened, is happening, and will happen. Do not be anxious; go to God in prayer and let Him know your requests, "and the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:7) Let God be in control of your life, and watch the miraculous happen! -wm

God is in Control

When we are actually living our lives, we don't always see the big picture of what the Lord is planning for us throughout the year. It is difficult to trust God sometimes when we try to take matters into our own hands instead of trusting God to work out all things for our good. He knows the plans that He has for us, as you well know. He promises us in His word that He will not leave us or forsake us. No matter what situation arises, Jesus Christ is the solution. As I reflect on the past year (it has certainly been a unique one in my life) I can see how God has designed the path that He desires for me to take. I understand why I had to experience circumstances. It was all a part of His plan, a way of preparing me to receive from the Lord.

Thank you, Lord, for doing Your will in my life. I am finally learning to move with Your spirit instead of against Your spirit. When troubles come, I have learned to place my life into the nail scarred hands of Jesus Christ. He has already gone before me, and for me to have the desires of my heart fulfilled, I must endure situations that I don't understand.

The Lord has led me to simplify my life this year. This wasn't an easy task to accomplish, because life these days gets so complicated. I try to obey the Lord and remind my-

Scriptures to Live By

"As for me, I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me. Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me." (Psalm 55:16-18)

"Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved." (Psalm 55:22)
