Christian Declaration of Independence

We celebrate Independence on July 4, but for a Christian the celebration can extend throughout eternity. Do we realize what that freedom cost, or how precious it is to live in a free country? Sometimes I wonder if we really do appreciate the sacrifices that so many other people have made for us to enjoy this freedom. It is a selfless act of kindness that both men and women were willing to serve the United States of America. Now, we can also think about the sacrifices that so many men and women have been willing to make so that we could have freedom to worship God. When we study the scriptures, we find that the bible is filled with verses that remind us of what we can be free from. These are just a few:

I am free from failure, for “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me” Philippians 4:13.

I am free from want, for “my God shall supply all my need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus” Philippians 4:19.

I am free from fear, for “God hath not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind” II Timothy 1:7.

I am free from doubt, for “God hath given to every man the measure of faith” Romans 12:3.

I am free from weakness, “For the Lord is the strength of my life” Psalm 27:1 and “the people that know their God shall be strong and do exploits” Daniel 11:32.

I am free from the power of Satan, “for greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world” I John 4:4.

I am free from defeat, “For God always causeth me to triumph in Christ Jesus” II Corinthians 2:14.

I am free from Ignorance, “for Christ Jesus is made unto me wisdom from God” I Corinthians 1:30

I am free from sin, “for the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth me from all sin” I John 1:7.

I am free from worry, “for I am to cast my cares upon him” I Peter 5:7.

I am free from bondage, “for where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty” II Corinthians 3:17.

I am free from condemnation, “for there is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit” Romans 8:1.

WE NEED TO TAKE A STAND FOR FREEDOM! Author unknown

We are free to worship the Lord, today, because someone had a burden to fight for what was right. Happy 4th of July! -gm/wm

Scriptures to Live By

“If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.” (John 8:36)

“Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” (Mark 11:24)
