Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

It's Time to Get Up and Do It Again

"Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto them thou art my servant: I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." (Isaiah 41:9-10)

We have been chosen for this hour to fight the good fight of faith. Let us not grow weary in doing the work of the Lord because the time for the Pentecostals of Greenville to become the light of Greenville has come. The work that the Lord has called me to do in the music ministry, Sunday School, and the Lattereign have been a blessing to me, week after week, and I feel that I have been called to this purpose. Do I feel adequately prepared? No. Have I ever doubted that the Lord would honor my desire to lead, teach, or write? Many times. But I know that He has called me, and that His grace is sufficient enough to equip me with the humility to lead, the patience to teach, and the words to write in order to get the job done.

What is ministry? A burden? A blessing? I'm not sure; sometimes it can be a mixture of both, but all in all, I know that I've been called to this purpose and that I must do the work that He has called me to do. I can't back down just because there are troubles on the team, challenging Sunday School classes, or words that just aren't flowing. I must press forward to do His work. Quitting is not an option. Is it always easy? A thousand times, "no", but it is a passion and perhaps not seemingly important when you don't always see the results of your efforts and you get discouraged.

You just keep on sowing the seeds. Keep on encouraging the discouraged. Keep on worshiping God. Keep on teaching and sharing the Word. Keep on obeying the Lord to deliver the message as He gives it to you to write. Nothing shall stop you from moving forward when you have a single purpose in mind: to do the work that the Lord has called you to do (it's called the will of God in your life!). I can't do it in my own strength. I am not gifted nor educated in music, teaching, or writing; I'm just available and trying to be open to the Spirit. I want to be a vessel used by the Holy Ghost to share this truth: Jesus loves you, and He will not fail you. He is always faithful, and He is a god of provision and strength. He is the healer of all our diseases, and He loadeth us with benefits. He is our Savior and He is coming soon. We must get prepared to meet Him, and while we are waiting, we must do the work that He has called us to do.

Don't give up! Don't give in. Don't fall by the wayside in defeat. Don't stop sharing the Gospel. Get up, brush yourself off in Jesus' name, and keep moving forward. Jesus is still on the throne and in control of your circumstance, so you have no need to fear for He has already won the battle. It is up to us to learn how to follow in the shadow of His wings of protection. —wm/gm

Scriptures to Live By:

"The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy."

(Psalm 145:8)

"He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand; for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good."

(Ecclesiastes 11:4-6)
