Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

Creation is to Praise Him!

One day the other week, my screened-in back porch was calling to me...Clean me....Clean me. Well, it was more of a yell, but that was okay. The showers of pollen had for the most part abated, and I ventured out to clean and wash nature's yellow paint off of things and out of the porch. After reclaiming the natural colors of objects, furniture, screens and floor, my labor had rewarded me a nice place to sit in the late afternoon and to enjoy the quietness and peacefulness of a backyard, a backyard of nature displayed outright for my personal enjoyment. And the warm breeze seemed to calm me but charge me to take notice of God's handiwork called nature.

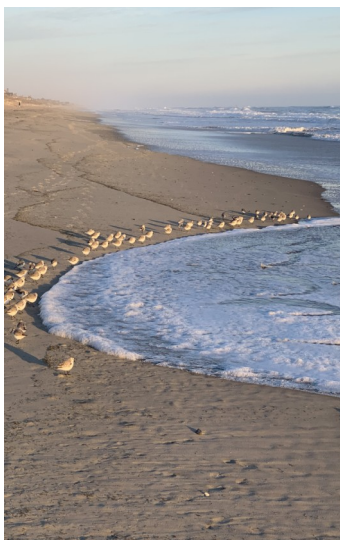

Nature. What a wonderful work that God did for us so we wouldn't have to live in a world painted black and white but in color. Where the smell of freshly cut grass triumphs over the smell of dirty socks. Where watching two doves stay close to each other wherever they are in the yard. Where the wind turns tree branches into maestros, directing the organic symphony of a late springtime end of day.

Where God can clear your mind of the problems and give you the peace. "Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth." (Psalm 46:10)

Nature. It truly praises God. In Psalm 148, we see that God instructed everything He created to praise Him: angels, sun, moon, waters, earth, fire, hail, snow, mountains, trees, beasts, creeping things, birds, kings, people, young men, old men, maidens, children. "The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing." (Psalm 65:13) "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork." (Psalm 19:1) "Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together" (Psalm 98:7-8) "And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb forever and ever." (Revelation 5:13).

Mankind. How much more does the Heavenly Father desire us, who were created by Him and not spoken into existence (And God said...), to worship Him? "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Genesis 1:27) We should give God all of the praise and all of the glory, if not for what He's done for us, if not that it's commanded of Him, then just for the fact that God is God.

"Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name." (Psalm 100:3-4) -wm

The church picnic—A church had a picnic and invited the entire community to come. The Pastor placed a basket full of apples on one end of a table with a sign saying, "Take only one apple please - Remember that God is watching."

On the other end of the table was a plate of cookies where one of the children had placed a sign saying, "Take all the cookies you want -- God is watching the apples."

Jesus is Watching You—A burglar broke into a home and was looking around. He heard a soft voice say, "Jesus is watching you". Thinking it was just his imagination, he continued his search. Again the voice said "Jesus is watching you". He turned his flashlight around and saw a parrot in a cage. He asked the parrot if he was the one talking and the parrot said, "yes." He asked the parrot what his name was and the parrot said, "Moses." The burglar asked, "what kind of people would name a parrot Moses?" The parrot said, "the same kind of people who would name their German Shepherd Jesus".
