Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

Help us to remember that your love reaches through time to keep us; you know the plans that you have for us: to prosper us as our souls prosper and to keep us in good health. Yes, there is so much to be thankful for: if your health has failed, and every thing seems lost, today you can still feel the peace of God that passeth all understanding. Whatever your circumstances, Jesus Christ is the answer. We invite you into His presence today. May the Lord richly bless you and your family. gm/wm

A Time To Be Thankful

When was the last time that you told someone thanks for something that they did for you? Every day we come to God with our petitions. When we come into his presence, oftentimes with a heavy and burdened heart, we have a tendency to unload our trouble on him. In a month where we celebrate Thanksgiving, it is time for us to learn to take time to be thankful. I am blessed. I don't deserve it. I never expected it; but, all the same, through God's mercy, I am blessed. I am thankful that the Lord brought me here, today, so that I can worship God freely.

Lord, thank you for taking the time to save my soul from sin. Thank you for filling me with the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and for giving me the opportunity to be baptized in your precious name, Jesus. You have made a difference in my life. In my walk with you, there are times that I don't know where to turn, or what direction is best for me, but thank you for taking my hand and leading me through those difficult times of indecision. While I walk, I can see the storms on every side, and although I don't see ahead, I can look up and know that You are providing a shield to protect me. You promised that You would never leave me nor forsake me, but it is my choice to make. I could redirect my attention to the left side or to the right side and see the turmoil all around me. I could turn away and look back to my past where you brought me out of the danger and heartache. I could look down in shame and hand over my victory and joy to the devil, a victory that has already been won at Calvary, but I have chosen to keep looking forward. "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God, in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 3:14)

When I call on Your name, You reach for me and make the way clear. All that I am able to see is You, and that is all that I need to see. Every decision, every hurt, every tear, every prayer, every aspect of my being: Jesus, let it be filtered through Your blood and Your Word.

I can't see the struggles ahead; sometimes that makes me anxious. It is in those times that I remember the scripture: "Be careful for nothing, but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:6-8) I'm not perfect, Lord, but You still love me, and for that, I am thankful.

In Flanders Fields

by Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

We celebrate the courage and sacrifices of all who have served in the U.S. Military this Veterans Day (November 11). Thank you.
