Welcome to the Pentecostals of Greenville!

Dear Lord, Thanks for Everything

Thank You for reminding me in Your gentle way that I am more blessed than I deserve. If You had so chosen, I might not have opened my eyes today to see the sunrise or feel the delicious breeze. In those few quiet moments alone in Your presence, I live a lifetime. Too often I grumble and complain when circumstances seem to pressure me to make important decisions. I'd prefer to go with the flow and not confront difficulties, but You remind me gently that if I'm to be a strong Christian, fit for the Master's use, that I'm going to go through some hard places where I have to press on with all my strength, then pray the power down to gain Your strength so that I can be an over comer. Through all of my struggles, You remind me that I have to keep moving forward and trusting in You.

Yes, Lord, I know that it'd be easier to go with the opposition, give in, be quiet about what I believe, quench your Spirit, but the easier way won't give me the joy that You can give. If I will hold on and keep strong in the faith, I'll be able to overcome every trial; I can have the victory over all of Satan's arsenal.

You know, Lord, sometimes I just get plain-old tired of fighting the Spirits of darkness, the principalities, the rulers of dark places, but then once again, You remind me that the fight isn't mine: it is Yours. Knowing that makes me feel pretty special and loved, although I know that I am too critical at times. For the life of me, I can't imagine someone loving me as much as You do: but You do love me.

When I think about Calvary and the unselfish sacrifices that You made for me there, I can keep going forward in the faith because You live and You love me. It isn't difficult to give thanks for everything when you consider that You, Jesus Christ, are everything important in my life. I stand complete in You, Lord.

"But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: Whereunto he called you by the gospel to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" (II Thessalonians 2: 13-14). I thank you Jesus for choosing me to be a part of this glorious church!

We welcome and thank all our guests and visitors and everyone for being with us today! We love you, we pray the Lord will bless you, and we welcome you back anytime! gm/wm

Scriptures to live by

"He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches:"
(Revelation 3:5,6)
