The Lord is my Shepherd

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he loadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he loadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." (Psalm 23)

One of the most read, most comforting, most recognizable passages in the Bible is this beautiful psalm written by King David. He starts with these words: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. This is so fitting from David, being he was a shepherd boy as he was growing up. This was a lowly work, usually given to the youngest of the family. He knew what it was like to take care of a flock of sheep. He knew the dangers involved, but he knew how to protect them. He knew how to put them on the right path if they got off the path. He knew how to feed them, to lead them to fresh water, to make them rest.

David, when writing this, must have reflected back on how God was his shepherd, how the Lord had taken care of him, how the Lord takes care of all his people. Throughout the bible, references are made of the Lord being a shepherd. Jacob describes the mighty God as the shepherd, the stone of Israel. David makes mention of the Lord in Psalm 95: "For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand." Isaiah said "He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young." In John chapter 10, Jesus speaks bountifully about Him being "the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

And as a shepherd takes care of his flock, God, as our shepherd, takes care of us. He cares not only for all, but for each and every one of us. He provides for us. (But my God shall supply all your need... Philippians 4:19) As a shepherd leads thirsty sheep to water, the Lord leads his people who thirst after righteousness to living water. (For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Rev. 7:17) As a shepherd guides and leads his flock, God will look after His people. In Ezekiel 34, leaders of Israel have not taken care of His people; thus, God "will seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel. I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God. Ezekiel 34)

Sheep know the sound of their shepherd. We, as sheep, need to hear the voice of our Shepherd, Jesus Christ. Let us come to Him and know He will take care of us at all times. Let the Lord be your Shepherd today!
