With My Whole Heart, I Will Praise Him!

"And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings. When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble" (Psalm 9:10-12).

"I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvelous works. I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name. O thou most High. When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence" (Psalm 9:12-13).

At the Pentecostals of Greenville, we are not strangers to praising God fervently! We love to come into an atmosphere of praise and worship to our God, and we show our love towards Him with heartfelt praise and worship. "I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation." (Psalm 111:1). It is about the times when worship and praise becomes laborious and a challenge that I would like to speak.

We have all been through times when we felt that we were trying to hold up 100 lb weights when we lifted our hands in praise. It was work to get our hands to move. In serving God we experience mountaintops and the deep valleys below. David also had that experience, but he never stopped worshiping and praising God through it all. What an honor to have been chosen to write some of the books of the inspired Word of God. I wonder if the Psalms would have been as eloquently written if David hadn't endured all the troubles and enemies that surrounded him. It doesn't make sense to leave God out of our plans. He is the Almighty! He promises to help us in our troubles; He always makes a way; He is our comforter. He gave us a new song of praise; He knows our heart and our desires. Truly the Lord doesn't forget our cry when we come into His presence humbly. It's His desire that we have the good things in life.

Sometimes it seems that every weapon known to man has been formed against us, and there is trouble on every side. Our health begins to fail us, our finances dry up, our soul is thirsty for the living water to pour over us again, and we are fighting an unknown and uncertain future. However, the Bible promises that when the enemy comes in like a flood that he will lift up a standard against him. He becomes a shield against the wicked one. He gives us the victory!

We are to keep worshiping and praising God—in the good times and in the not so good times. When we are happy, and when we are sad; when there is joy unspeakable, and when the joy has departed; in an abundance of rain and refreshing, and when we find ourselves somewhere in the desert. I will bless the Lord at all times his praise shall continually be in my mouth. David had a right to be bitter and distressed for most of his life, but he chose to use the most powerful weapon of all to overcome his despair and gain true victory over his enemies: PRAISE and WORSHIP with a whole heart!-gm/wm
