E. M. Bounds: Quotes on Prayer

(We are focusing on prayer in the month of January, and we have plenty of opportunities to do that here! Wednesday nights, Saturdays, Sunday mornings. And your personal time of prayer, where ever and whenever you can! Let's be a praying church!)

- "This is not a praying age; it is an age of great activity, of great movements, but one in which the tendency is very strong to stress the seen and the material and to neglect and discount the unseen and the spiritual."
- "Prayer is the greatest of all forces, because it honours God and brings Him into active aid."
- "Prayer is the mightiest agent to advance God's work."
- "We are in danger of substituting churchly work and a ceaseless round of showy activities for prayer and holy living."
- "We are charged in God's Word 'always to pray,' 'in everything by prayer,' 'continuing instant in prayer,' to 'pray everywhere,' 'praying always.'"
- "I think Christians fail so often to get answers to their prayers because they do not wait long enough on God."
- "The goal of prayer is the ear of God, a goal that can only be reached by patient and continued and continuous waiting upon Him, pouring out our heart to Him and permitting Him to speak to us. Only by so doing can we expect to know Him, and as we come to know Him better we shall spend more time in His presence and find that presence a constant and ever-increasing delight."
- "If God is not first in our thoughts and efforts in the morning, He will be in the last place the remainder of the day."
- "There is neither encouragement nor room in Bible religion for feeble desires, listless efforts, lazy attitudes; all must be strenuous, urgent, ardent. Inflamed desires, impassioned, unwearied insistence delight heaven. God would have His children incorrigibly in earnest and persistently bold in their efforts. Heaven is too busy to listen to half-hearted prayers or to respond to pop-calls. Our whole being must be in our praying."
- "Prayer is God's plan to supply man's great and continuous need with God's great and continuous abundance."
- "Our praying needs to be pressed and pursued with an energy that never tires, a persistency which will not be denied, and a courage that never fails."
